EDIT NOTE

We welcome you with an open heart into the season of chilly waves and slowly moving fans. The season in which half-sleeves become full and short nights become long. Winters come and go like jack & jill on the hill but the essence of this season is something that wins our heart in a gist. For all of him to enjoy his winters as much as he enjoys his ice-creams in summers, we have brought the October Edition of our prestigious FHM.

Not only providing smiles all around for 14 years, but FHM has also been the World's best-selling Men's magazine. This issue is something not to ignore or mark slightly off, we are celebrating the 14th Anniversary of our cerebral journey with all of you. In the books of numerology, 14 is the number that represents freedom.

14th Anniversary of FHM also represent freedom; Freedom from your Stress, Freedom from a Pandemic, Freedom from everything that's bothering you lately, and Freedom from all the negativity in the world. Come let us divulge our attention to this month's celebratory issue!

Starting off with your wrist, we have got some timepieces for you which can not only turn up your fashion game but also can make time work for you. Silicon complements this section with some of the highly-packed smartphones that would turn you into a complete gamer. Playing with some numbers you are now going to venture into the world of whirl and speed with torque on the way.

Don't you worry, we have also taken care of your melodious lust in the crescendo section. For all the gamblers and outgoing readers out there, we have got the ins and outs of the trending game of Yablon and complementing it are some scrumptious drinks in the Quench and Cheers section.

Plan to go out somewhere? Well, worry not we have got the perfect destination for you in the Travel section. All the cinephiles in the house give Shang-Chi a cheer because that's what we have got for you. From all your dirty kinks to all you need to know fashion, we have covered it all in this issue.

Featuring our cover this October is Cailin Alyssa. An all-rounder who is not only sexy but living life to her fullest, Cailin knows the value of deep curves in one's life and she's not afraid to show them. Divulge into her ferocious looks as she makes our cover super-hot!

Going hand-in-hand with our cover story, there are additional surprises for you. Just a hint, divide 14 by 2 and that's how many times you are going to be surprised this month.

Taking a teeny bit of your time, we would like to thank all of you for reading what we have to say every month. It's our combined effort that we have been on top from the beginning. We wish that our love remains eternal and you continue to shower us with your love and support. Enjoy this issue because FHM has got your back at every moment.

Happy Reading!

SOMEONE'S Always Watching

Whether it be for a special occasion or to add another exciting piece to your precious collection, these fabulous timepieces of all time are totally worth your time. Have a look!

By AYUSHI SINGH

We often hear people say "Keep Watch" while doing something important as we all know that time and tide wait for no one. If you respect time, you will be successful and if you run away from it, you will end up at a place called nowhere. In this fast-moving world, it is important to be one with time and keep a track of things around you. And to do so, we created a wristwatch.

Wristwatches have come a long way with time. Modern designs and horological complications dictate the course of brands who release their latest creations with great enthusiasm. We have brought to you some of these brands and their best-selling designs. To make sure you go out with a precise time routine and don't compromise on quality and design, pick your favourite among these.

THIS CHRONOGRAPH BLACK SILICONE WATCH BY ARMANI EXCHANGE FEATURES A QUARTZ MOVEMENT WITH CHRONO FUNCTION.

1. TIMEX 21 JEWEL AUTOMATIC ANALOG WATCH
Featuring a full skeleton dial, The Timex 21 Jewel Automatic Analog Watch comes with a Double Dome Crystal Glas. This watch is wanted by many who like to tie elegance around their wrist. It also has an Italian Leather Strap which offers a unique design and comfort. With a round case and tan-coloured band, this watch has a brown dial. It is water-resistant for up to 30m and supports mechanical type movement. Additionally, it has a power reserve of up to 40 hours as well. This is an excellent choice for anyone looking for a classic timepiece with modern touches.
Price: ₹11,000 approx.

2. ARMANI EXCHANGE CHRONOGRAPH BLACK SILICON WATCH

If you want to give a good watch to someone close to you which is also budget-friendly, this is an ideal choice for you. This Chronograph Black Silicone Watch by Armani Exchange features a Quartz movement with Chrono function. The main attractive quality of this timepiece is the 44mm textures matte black dial that has Armani Exchange's logo on it. The black silicone strap adds a bonus to its beauty. Wear this for a dapper look and let it shine on your wrist.
Price: ₹10,500 approx.

3. THOMAS EARNSHAW LONGCASE GRANDE SKELETON

As beautiful as this watch is, it will give you all the aesthetics you need. With warm gold and a skeleton dial, this immaculate timepiece will make you the centre of attraction. The three hands and automatic functioning with delightful design is a perfect choice for the collector in you. This watch has exposed mechanics and the lavish gems used to enhance its overall look make it a unique watch. The brand quotes that "utter precision and care form the backbone of this timepiece". The 48mm case is made with stainless steel and the 22mm Brown Genuine Leather Strap gives it a chic look. It is water-resistant to up to 5 ATMs as well.
Price: ₹26,000 approx.

4. TITAN SILVER DIAL AUTOMATIC WATCH

In all its glorious years, Titan has made a quite trustworthy reputation for itself. The uniqueness of its watches can be seen precisely in its beautiful designs. The Silver Dial Automatic Watch is one such watch that carries on TITAN's name in the watch industry. This watch is for men with fine taste and who appreciate little gestures. It has a Cambered dial with K1 Crystal on top and Lume Hands. Along with this, the watch also has Miyota 82s0 Japanese movement for precise time reading. The much-appreciated design of this watch is inspired by the soft edges of a luxury automobile. It stands for timeless sophistication and features an intricate yet modern design aesthetic. To top it all, the watch has a genuine leather strap that enhances the overall look of this watch.
Price: ₹13,000 approx.

5. DIOLLO TOURBILLON MECHANICAL MOVEMENT LUXURY WATCH

Diollo Tourbillon brings authentic design with this luxury watch at an affordable price. It features an automatic mechanical movement without a battery. This watch has a beautiful white dial which is magnified with a diamond dial window. It also comes with an analogue display date. The smack dial on the left shows the week, making it easy to read time, moon phase and even date calendar functions. The 316l stainless steel case works well with the leather band attached to the dial. The rose gold used for the case gives this watch an elegant look and the white dial with rose gold hands fit the overall aesthetic of the watch. It is water resistance and scratch resistant as well which means you can wear this watch every day.
Price: ₹15,000 approx.

Venturing into the WORLD OF GAMING

Good News for All the Gamers, Now Play Your Favourite Game on The Same Device You Use to Make Calls With. Yes, Your Smartphone. Don't Believe us? Roll Your Eyes on These Powerful Beasts.

By MUKUND SHARMA

Humans made a phone smart but now that phone can outsmart a human. Smartphones have become an integral part of our lifestyle nowadays. Now, If I tell you to not use your phone for a whole day, Can you? No, right?

From talking to your loved ones to playing your favorite game, smartphones are in all of it. Recently, the craze for mobile gaming surged like a rocket taking off. We have to give PUBG Mobile the deserved credits for booming the smartphone gaming industry. Before PUBG, performance was not a major area of concern for smartphone manufacturers. People had this idea of "You can only game in flagships" but now things have changed tremendously.

Not only this competition has bought better smartphones for us but it has opened the doors for future improvements. In today's era buying a dedicated playing console may seem foolish. So, don't be one of them, instead, choose one of these!

1. POCO X3 PRO

Making a debut in 2018 in the Indian smartphone market with their banger of a phone Poco F1, Poco has made their marks in these 3 years. Yet again releasing an all-gaming smartphone Poco X3 Pro, Poco does not want to stop when it comes to power at an extremely powerful price tag. Poco X3 Pro is the ultimate budget-friendly gaming smartphone. You may call it the "Kia" of the smartphone industry. Some of its prominently aggressive features are -:

- Qualcomm Snapdragon 860 SoC
- 6/8GB Ram 128/256GB Rom
- 5160 MAH Li-ion Battery
- Quad Rear Camera with Primary 48MP & 20MP Front
- 120Hz IPS LCD FHD+ Display

Poco also released the Poco F3 GT but considering gaming as a major concern, not many changes have been done & it is much more expensive for a budget user. Poco X3 Pro lacks Super-Amoled Display and is quite a bit hefty in hand. If you don't mind the weight and are just in it for the performance, Get on board!

Price: Starting from ₹18,999

2. IQOO 7

Also, a latecomer on the list is IQOO. Not as popular as Poco but definitely has been winning hearts lately. IQOO made its debut in the Indian smartphone market more recently in 2019 with its IQOO 3.

At the time, the phone didn't get much attention but oh boy, how the times have changed.

IQOO 7 is a complete package providing flagship specifications at a much more budget-friendly price tag. It has got everything that you need to game efficiently and powerfully. Some of its prominent features are-:

- Qualcomm Snapdragon 888 5G SoC
- 8/12GB Ram & 128/256GB Rom
- 4000 MAH Li-Po Battery
- Quad Camera with 48MP Primary & 16MP Front Camera
- 120Hz Super-AMOLED FHD+ Display

Featuring 2nd time on our list, this phone is aging like a fine wine. But as we mentioned earlier, the Operating system of IQOO is just so poorly optimized and looks very cartoony. We waited for some updates, but not everything got resolved. We hope in the future update IQOO cleans some bloatware and make the UI much smoother.

Price: Starting from ₹34,990

2.2 BILLION IS THE TOTAL NUMBER OF ACTIVE GAMERS IN THE WORLD. ABOUT 78% OF THEM ARE ANDROID USERS.

3. ASUS ROG 5S PRO

Hailing from Taiwan, Asus has been popularly producing high-powered computer components for decades. This tech giant has also been in the smartphone industry for quite a while now but when it comes to gaming, Asus has to be there.

ROG in Asus stands for Republic of Gamers. Asus ROG 5s Pro is the latest edition of the brand's ongoing gaming series. It's a sure shot at gaming and this shot has really hit the bell. Take a look at some of the mind-blowing features of this beast-:

- Qualcomm Snapdragon 888+ 5G SoC
- 18GB Ram & 512GB Rom
- 6000 MAH Li-Po Battery
- Triple Camera with 64MP Primary & 24MP Front Camera
- 144Hz Super-AMOLED FHD+ Display

Adding to your gaming experience it comes packed with extra quirks and features like RGB Lighting throughout the body, Dedicated gaming triggers, and DTS Stereo speakers with 2 amplifiers. But where there is heaven, there's hell too. The weight of this phone takes a major hit and it could feel a bit hefty for your pocket. But other than that, it's purely made for gamers, by gamers.

Price: Starting from ₹79,999

4. IPHONE 13

Released this fall, Apple's Flagship iPhone 13 tops the list. Apple is still undefeated when it comes to power and flagships. Powerful by core, this brand focuses on reliability and quality. Globally known for its software to hardware integration, Apple has yet again proved to be the big bull of the smartphone industry. Some of its nifty features go as follows-:

- Apple A15 Bionic SoC
- 4GB Ram & 128/256/512GB Rom
- 3240 MAH Li-ion Battery
- Dual Rear Camera of 12MP & Dual Front Camera of 12MP
- Super-Retina XDR OLED Display

Imagine an ice-cream lover getting all the ice-cream flavours in one scoop. Well, that scoop is iPhone 13 for all the Tech Lovers. We would not recommend the Pro or the Pro Max Versions this year due to no major changes than the older ones.

Price: Starting From ₹79,990

Will you choose a square dial apple watch or circle dial Amazefit watch? Here's what you need to consider before making a decision.

By AYUSHI SINGH

Having a smartwatch around your wrist in today's time has become a kind of necessity. You never know when you may feel the need of having one. You may even sometimes feel left out when everyone around you owns a smartwatch except you. To help you out in such a situation, we have got you the best options.

An interesting thing to note is that these watches have quite different display features as well as price ranges. You can choose whichever suits your preferences. Read on!

1. APPLE WATCH SERIES 6

Apple watches surely stand out in features as well as in price. The apple watch series 6 measures your blood sugar and keeps a close look at your heart rate to ensure you stay fit. It can measure ECG as well as your sleeping schedule that helps you with every step throughout your day. It tracks your daily activities precisely and even works underwater. When you are on the go, you can use the connectivity feature to track all your calls and texts so that you never miss them again. Along with this you can also listen to music and use Siri, all with a device on your wrist.

When it comes to looks, the Apple Watch Series 6 has a square display and you can add a new strap to change the way it looks. It also has a retina display which is 30 % larger than series 3.

Price: ₹ 52,900 approx.

2. AMAZFIT GTR 2E SMART WATCH

This smartwatch has been termed as a new classic essential. Not only is it lightweight, but it also has an extended battery life that lasts up to 24 days during typical use. It has a sophisticated circuit design with a much thinner body that looks like a work of art on your wrist. It has a 24-hour heart rate monitoring system that covers heart rate zones and provides warnings when any abnormality is detected. This smartwatch can measure your blood oxygen saturation levels as well. Including all this, you can also ensure a good night's sleep while wearing this watch as it also has a sleep quality monitoring feature. The PAI Health Assessment System keeps your physical state in check including your stress levels. Above all, it also has a built-in Alexa feature as your voice assistant.

Price: ₹ 8,000 approx.

Elixir of Life!

A Drink that means ‘water of life’ has a rich history to it as well. Here are 14 interesting facts you might not know about Whiskey. Have a look!

By AYUSHI SINGH

Whiskey is a much-loved drink. No occasion is fulfilled without a glass of whiskey and neither is our anniversary edition. To add more fun and excitement to our 14th-anniversary issue, we have brought to you a collection of 14 interesting facts you might not know about whiskey. So, the next time you drink, remember the glorified history that the drink in your hand lived through.

There exists a Japanese whisky named Kikori which is made with 100 per cent rice.

A wounded warehouse in the Liberties caught fire in June 1875. This led to rivers of burning whiskey flowing through the lanes of Dublin. This incident was called the Great Dublin Whiskey Fire which resulted in the loss of 1900 casks of whiskey.

£156 was earned every second in 2019 by Scotch exports.

The largest bottle of whisky was created by the distillers of Famous Grouse, who made a 1.7 -metre bottle that stored 228 litres of whiskey.

Macallan, a 30-year-old cask was termed as the most expensive whiskey to have ever sold at an auction in 2019. It was sold at $572,000.

Sir Nikola Tesla, a famous scientist, drank whiskey every day as he believed that it would extend his life to 150 years.

Only a few from over 300,000 varieties of barley are sustainable for malt whiskey production.

‘The Perfect Collection’ is the name given to the world’s largest collection of Scotch Whisky with a staggering 3,384 bottles.

133 distilleries were licensed to produce Scotch Whiskey at the time of writing.

A whiskey rebellion was held in Pennsylvania in 1794 due to the tax on Whiskey. The tax was repealed in 1802.

Whiskey has the highest retail sales of any spirit in France at 47.2 per cent according to The French Federation of Spirits. Cognac on the other hand makes up only 0.7 per cent of sales.

In 2006, an 1896 scotch was found from Ernest Shackleton’s Antarctic Expedition which is now being preserved in New Zealand. It did not freeze at -30 temperatures.

Whiskey contains only about 64 calories in an average measure which is even less than a banana.

Around 43 per cent of tourists visit a distillery in Scotland on every visit which makes it the second most popular activity for the demographic.

Pedal It OUT!

Let miles be your meditation and speed mean freedom. Choose from below-mentioned bikes and take them out for a ride to enjoy and stay in shape without the extra labour of working out.

By ESHIKA CHOPRA

Leading fitness has always been the 'mantra' for us. We have made sure in the past to keep our readers content and fit. However, with the pandemic, came multiple problems disturbing our health and state of mind. Moving when you don't even feel like getting up is necessary. Doing some sort of exercise to keep that body intact should be the goal. Cycling has been one such method of staying fit that people genuinely enjoyed. Some even abundantly started their fitness journey by including cycling and some were still unsure if they wanted to get into it or not. Now that we are here, you can consider this a sign and work on achieving that charming body by just adding 30 minutes of cycling to your daily routine. To be honest, choosing the ideal cycle that gives you maximum comfort and joy is a task in today's time. But since we are here, we have got your back when it comes to selecting the best in the business, that is smooth enough to make fitness fun. These bicycles by well-established brands will definitely be helpful in being a part of that shaping journey. Wait no more and buy your pick amongst these now!

1. BTWIN Hybrid Cycle - Riverside 500
A brand regarded as the ideal one and marked as a trademark brand for bicycles rules over our garage with their exciting bikes. The brand is not only famous for bicycles but also biking accessories and other parts. With surprising ranges, it offers hybrid bikes, mountain bikes, road bikes, folding bikes, kids bikes, and urban bikes.

The one we consider a good match is their Hybrid Cycle - Riverside 500. Which looks elegant and is a super lightweight bike that is perfect for leisure riding or even some touring. It holds a modern 1x9 gearing and 28 inch tires. Since safety is the utmost priority, the brand has used aluminum disk brakes. Seat posts can easily be adjusted with graduations and lastly provides 9 indexed speeds.
One of the first big advantages is the cycle being extremely lightweight and easy to use because of the Single-chainring 9-speed drivetrain with the trigger. However, we highly doubt this can be taken into mountains!

2. Merida Big Trail
Merida, a Taiwan bicycle brand has been producing astonishing bikes since the year 1988 and all speed lovers have been admiring it. The brand is regarded for making high-quality and dashing bikes for everyone. In fact, their name says it all, the three syllables Me-Ri-Da elegant looking and superb bikes helping you reach your desired destination peacefully.
Speaking of their Big Trail Bike, as the name suggests it is designed for trail riding and is made from Merida's Racelite 61 aluminum. Coming onto geometry, it is paired with a slack 65.5° head angle and a steep seat angle. The new boost technology lets the rider enjoy the ride. It also offers 100 mm fork spacing. Looks is what the brand stands for, so no compromise has been done in that segment.
To conclude, this one is an impressive bike that is worth the price you pay for it. But do remember, the key is to pick the right size to enjoy the rides on this one.

DOING SOME SORT OF EXERCISE TO KEEP THAT BODY INTACT IS THE GOAL. CYCLING HAS BEEN ONE SUCH METHOD OF STAYING FIT THAT PEOPLE GENUINELY ENJOYED LAST YEAR.

2.

3. Specialized Sirrus Series X 4.0
Performance and innovation has been the company's prime goal when it comes to satisfying its customers with motorcycles. Specialized has been a brand known for introducing mountain bikes. That being said, the brand focuses on providing a range of varieties to cater to everybody's needs.
The brand's Sirrus X Series had a great fan base the minute it launched. Comfort was of utmost priority and every bicycle in the Sirrus series ensured the same. The Sirrus X 4.0 version is the final product of the series with "revolutionary Future Shock to take the sting out of bumps and potholes." A bike is best for fitness as it's smooth with 38mm wide tires. With the ability to have to go fast and hill-climbing gearing, this one should be added in the garage and taken out daily for a fit future. Although, the price is one point that can be problematic but again no compromise in class and performance.

4. KONA Process X
A leading company in almost 60 countries worldwide, is best known for its durability. KONA was established in 1988 in Vancouver and today offers a wide range of choices to everyone. Another fascinating fact to know about them is how they built these bikes from materials like carbon fiber, titanium, aluminum, and steel.

The Process X includes two models, 70mm/162mm front and rear travel, 29" wheels. The brand has designed this Process X free ride bike beautifully. The chainstay length can be adjusted and the seat angle set at 77.5° gives the rider a comfortable position. The internal cable biking is super helpful to mount the brakes moto-style. A smooth-running bike you'd want to take for a ride every day.
The price factor again can be an issue but the brand has always stayed true to handling technical trains and the durability of all their bikes.

5. TREK Marlin 8
A brand with Rich Heritage is Trek. Yet another big name in the industry that produces high-performance bikes and contributes to making the world a better place. The brand claims, "every model is backed by our history of performance, durability, and precision engineering."

6.

Marlin 8 is regarded as a race-worthy bike that is smooth, lightweight and in no time has become the ideal choice of new bikers. With creating multiple options, Marlin comes in seven different frame sizes. Another impressive feature is a stylish frame with an internal shift cable and brake hose routing in the Marlin.
To conclude, it's a bike with surprisingly good features that can be used by commuters for off-roading, fast cross country biking, and even for when you learn how to bunny hop.

6. Cannondale Adventure Neo 1 EQ
Cannondale, a super cool company with a fresh name, is a US-based bicycle brand producing bicycles from 1970 and leading the industry with new innovations since. The most admired point for the brand is the love they have for their products and customers. They have indeed made for a successful bike company.
The new Adventure Neo 1 EQ by the brand is an electric bike built for city streets, the town pathways, and the great open roads. With a battery of 625Wh, it ranges up to 85 mi. This lightweight aluminum-made bike has the most powerful motor. The comfort it provides is commendable with a bump-absorbing front fork. Lights with more safety are another plus point.
Overall, for an electric bike, this one by the leading brand is a great pick with all easy and fun features to use while riding the bike.

19. "Abracadabra" by Steve Miller Band
One-liner: Every time you call my name / I heat up like a burning flame.

YABLON TILL DAWN SAYS THE GAMBLING SWAN

Bored of Black-Jack & Roulettes? Try Something New with Us, Get on Board For Learning What Your To-Be-Favorite Card Game Looks Like!

By MUKUND SHARMA

If you have seen Steven Soderbergh's "Ocean's Eleven", you probably know what a casino is and how much money goes into it. Casinos are the new era's money-making machines. Fun for some and gambling station for many, casinos have been the place where relaxation, calculations & intensive decision making go hand in hand. Here, a wrong decision can cost you hell of a fortune.

The thrust and thrill that it provides remains unbeatable. Easily, it could be called the game of people with 'Big Hearts' and 'Big Wallets'. Amongst the many games played in a casino, this is about to be your favourite, Yablon.

Many of you would not be familiar with this term, but do not confuse its less popularity with its rich essence. Today, we will enlighten you about this masterpiece, for you to play the masterstroke and be the "Yablon King/Queen"!

WHAT IS IT?

Popularly known as Acey-Deucey, Between the Sheets, and Red Dog, Yablon is a banking card game that includes two or more players. The declining popularity of this casino game has recently seen a surge because of the increasing trend of online casinos.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, while everything shifted from the work desk to your house desk. Gambling also found its way to you. With the strict government regulations, this variation of a popular game Acey-Deucey took off like a rocket and people started loving it again.

IF THE CARD DEALT IN THE INITIAL TWO ROUNDS CONSISTS OF CONSECUTIVE NUMBERS, THE PLAYER'S WAGER IS RETURNED

Nothing fancy, but a 52-card deck is used in this variation. As the decks' increase, the house's advantage diminishes. The element of excitement that makes everything interesting here is the probability of winning and the risk probability. High risk, induces high profits and with high profits, interest also increases.

PROCEDURE

Have you played Acey-Deucey before? If yes, then it is not at all difficult to understand. If no, then say no to worries too because we have got you. After rolling your eyes over this, Yablon would seem to be a piece of cake to you.

- Take the set of 52 cards and remove the joker from the stack. Set them aside and let the game begin!

- We will be giving you an example of three people who will be placing the bets plus one dealer who would take care of the distribution of the cards and will also place a bet.

- The first step would be placing the bet. Each player would be betting on a single plate known as the "Pool". This pool would be containing the bets of each player at every point of the game. The first bet would be an even amount by all the players.

- The dealer would then deal the cards to each player, face down. Only two cards from the shuffled deck would be distributed to each player and no one is allowed to pick up the dealt cards until the dealer says so.

GAMBLING CAN BE SO MUCH FUN IF YOU ARE SPENDING YOUR MONEY RESPONSIBLY; GAMBLE, BUT KNOW YOUR LIMITS & ENJOY YABLON

- Then, these dealt cards would be picked up by each player and they would see the cards they got. After having a look at the cards, the player will decide that whether they want to continue or not. Here is where the game gets interesting. You don't know whether you would be getting the desired card next or not.

- Round-2 of betting begins now. After analysing the risk associated and their chances of winning, now players will decide upon continuing further or not. The desired players can now place their bets into the pool. This time, the bet could be according to the players wish and capacity.

- The basic idea of the game depends on the third card now. Suppose player 1 got two cards of numbers 5 & 7, Player 2 got 2 & 8, and Player 3 got 9 & 9. Here, the third card should be in of a number that is in-between the combinations that they have got. The closer the number is, the more probability of winning is. Player 1 has 1 variation in between, that is 6. Player 2 on the other hand has 5 variations of 3,4,5,6,7 and thus his chances of winning would be the most. Player 3 has no variation; thus, he would opt-out and not bet in the second round.

- Now, the dealer deals with the third card and the player with the closest number in the sequence wins. Now, the player who has won would not take the entire pool instead he will match his bet with other players and take that only. Suppose he bet 2 chips, so he would take 2 chips from each player and the rest pool goes into another round.

- Now, what if the pool gets overloaded? Well, when the game is about to start, the dealer decides on an amount for the pool. If the amount exceeds the limit, it would be distributed equally amongst the player for further rounds.

What to Drink Tonight? HERE ARE 14 OPTIONS!

Here's a list you need right now. With these fine alcohol from brands owned by your favourite celebrities, you can make sure you enjoy our 14th-anniversary edition correctly.

By AYUSHI SINGH

We are celebrating the 14th anniversary of a long magical saga and moments like these deserve the best of celebrations. 2. AVIATION AMERICAN GIN BY RYAN RENOLDS

When things start to warm up in the after-party, aviation gin will be your partner. Owned by the humorous Ryan Renolds, you might be quite familiar with its unique features from Ryan's Instagram posts. This gin created a buzz as soon as it was launched and we're all in to try it ourselves.

3. BROWN SUGAR BOURBON BY JAMIE FOXX

Bringing authenticity and high quality to the table, Jamie Foxx launched the brown sugar Bourbon that tastes majestical. This extraordinary tasting liqueur can be used for making your favourite cocktail as well.

4. BESPOKEN SPIRITS BY DEREK JETER

Take this on the rocks or add some lemon beverage to it and the Bespoken Spirits will make your night. Its true colour and fine bottle design places it high on elegance and flavour.

5. CALIROSA BY ADAM LEVINE AND BEHATI PRINSLOO

The Calirosa is perfect for any and every occasion. A birthday party, wedding party, graduation party or any other event can be turned into a memorable night with this Calirosa. The brand is owned by none other than the famous couple Adam Levine and Behati Prinsloo. What more reason do you need?

6. CACTI AGANE SPIKED SELTZER BY TRAVIS SCOTT

One can of the CACTI Agane Spiked Seltzer and you are set for the whole party. This delicious tasting alcohol drink, owned by Travis Scott delivers on the promises made by the brand. Not only is it rich in flavour but also defines class alcohol.

7. CINCORO TEQUILA BY MICHEAL JORDAN

The bottle itself speaks of luxury. One sip of the Cincoro Tequila can give you the taste you will never forget. The smooth texture and refined colour are just a bonus. If you are thinking of shots for a special occasion, think Cincoro Tequila.

8. HEAVEN'S DOOR WHISKEY BY BOB DYLAN

Bob Dylan gives some literal meaning to his song through his Whiskey brand. When you taste this whiskey, you taste heaven. It is as unique and as soothing as Bob Dylan's songs and it'll surely leave you longing for more.

9. INVIVO X BY SARAH JESSICA PARKER

Coming all the way from "Sex and the city", Sarah Jessica Parker has blown every mind with the launch of her wine brand Invivo X. It is delicious, rosy and best when you have something to eat. This pair is out of the world and surely a must-try.

10. MIRAVAL BY ANGELINA JOLIE AND BRAD PITT

The famous Hollywood couple who separated recently came out with their own liqueur brand named Miraval and all their fans are going crazy for it. The wines prepared by this brand are a perfect mixture of incredible ingredients that make your party rich with style. Having this is like having a sip of luxury.

11. MAISON NO. 9 BY POST MALONE

Celebrations and Post Malone go hand in hand quite literally. So much so that the American pop singer started a wine brand that serves authenticity and is a great time for celebrations. When you pop open the beautiful bottle, you get a taste of fine liqueur.

12. TEREMANA TEQUILA BY DWAYNE "THE ROCK" JOHNSON

One fine day, Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson decided that the world needs a fine Tequila Brand and launched Teremana Tequila and we can never thank him enough for it. Every bit from the choice of ingredients to the presentable bottle is on point for this liqueur and you need to try it yourself.

13. VILLA ONE BY NICK JONAS

Nick Jonas and John Varvatos have brought their strong beliefs from the music, film and fashion industry into the liquor industry to create the Villa One tequila. They've brought with them the principles that guide us towards better living and of course the fun in celebrations.

14. 19 CRIMES CALI BLEND BY SNOOP DOGG

Snoop Dogg's 19 Crimes Cali Blend is as hyped up as Snoop Dogg himself. One can expect endless fun and a great time with his liqueur as Snoop Dogg's reputation as a fun-loving person fits his liqueur's too.

Rum o'clock

Don't worry, cocktail calories don't count. Invite your friends over and celebrate the discovery of this new Cocktail, El Presidente.

By ESHIKA CHOPRA

8 glasses of water a day seems impossible but when it comes to cocktails, 8 doesn't look like a strange number anymore. We are bidding the summer season goodbye and winter is around the corner but cocktails aren't going anywhere. Rum is the ideal ingredient for any winter cocktail and we have brought to you one underrated yet supremely delicious cocktail to try out this winter, El Presidente. It is a Spanish word that literally means The President. Well, we'll give it to this cocktail for its sophistication different taste from all the other Cuban cocktails. It does have some unique ingredients but comes out with the right amount of booze and fun. Mind you, this cocktail uses aged or golden rum and not the regular white or dark rum. Other than Rum, another admired cocktails ingredient, Vermouth is a part of this absolute 'Saturday Night' cocktail. With a dash of fruitiness and flavors of rum, this drink enhances and does justice to all the elements in the drink. There are so many versions of making cocktails, but we bring out the best one for you to try and have crazy, drunk nights with friends. Drink wisely!

INGREDIENTS:

Aged or Golden Rum
Blanc Vermouth
Orange Curaçao
Grenadine
1 Maraschino or Luxardo cherry

RECIPE:

Step 1: Take a cocktail mixing glass and fill the two thirds with ice.
Step 2: Add all the ingredients, Aged Rum, Blanc vermouth, Orange Curaçao, Grenadine in the cocktail mixing glass and 'stir' for about 15 seconds.
Step 3: Strain the cocktail in a chilled coupe glass.
Step 4: Decorate it with Luxardo Cherry to give it a Manhattan vibe. You can also add orange peel twist to the glass.

TIP:

1. While making cocktails choose premium spirits.

2. Pay attention on when to stir or shake the cocktail in the mixer. Make sure to not shake while making El Presidente.

3. If you have time while making cocktails at home, try using fresh juices instead of the readymade.

4. Balance your cocktails for delicious results and taste heaven in every sip.

5. Don't be afraid to experiment, even unintentionally, you can end up making a new cocktail for fun nights with friends.

SHANG-CHI Makes Our Bron-Chi Gulp

Remember the Marvel's Comic Superhero "Shang-Chi"? Well, Grab That Popcorn Tub Because This is An Insight into The World of "Shang-Chi and The Legends of The Ten Rings"

By MUKUND SHARMA

Who here doesn't like watching movies? I mean, sure the taste differs but come on, a movie is all it takes to set the mood in the right place. If you don't, maybe it's time that you try something new today. From comedy to romance, movies date all the way back to 1906 when the first full-length feature film "The Story of the Kelly Gang" opened in Melbourne.

If you follow the magical world of movies and mythology, you must be aware of the American giant "Marvel Studios". Producing some revolutionizing movie series like Marvel's Avengers, X-Men, Deadpool, and Spider-Man, Marvel has indeed proved to be a marvel of the entertainment buzz.

Recently Marvel Studios has released its first-ever Asian lead movie named "Shang-Chi and The Legends of The Ten Rings" starring Simu Liu as the lead and Destin Daniel Cretton as the director. Grab your popcorn while we continue talking about it!

Fusing the Asian-American culture and their comical mythological superheros, Marvel tried something new here this time. First appearing in the Special Marvel's Edition #15, Shang-Chi was an Asian superhero who now made his way to the Marvel Cinematic Universe.

The movie was released on 2nd September and there is just one word that would make sense; Marvel-ous. With Chinese-Canadian Actor Simu Liu on board, every action scene seems realistic and intense. With its last superhit "Just Mercy", director Destin Daniel Cretton has yet again released a banger.

The story is based on Shaun, your regular valet living his dream in modern-day America. After a deadly assassination attempt on Shaun, the past becomes clearer for him and he goes back to his homeland. Then finds the hidden magical village of Ta-Lo and the gate which protects the modern-day world from the evil dimensions.

SHANG-CHI IS ACTUALLY HALF-ASIAN IN THE COMIC BOOK AS HIS FATHER IS AN ASIAN CRIME LORD AND HIS MOTHER IS AN AMERICAN.

He, alongside her sister Katy, has to protect humanity from their powerful father Wenwu, who is played by Tony Leung. Wenwu is ready to kill his son and daughter for the legendary ten rings. But can he? Romance is also something we wanted to see but his friendship with Awkwafina remains platonic throughout. But aren't platonic friendships without sexual tensions fun?

The movie also depicts some of the most intense hand-to-hand battles and looks nothing less than a classic Kung-Fu movie at times. If it was in the hand of Marvel, the world would've ended decades ago. But all jokes apart, the movie depicts Asian leads and respects Asian heritage by staying away from all the Asian stereotypes which "Shang-Chi Comic" was criticized for.

For the people who have seen "My Neighbor Totoro" & "Miyazaki's Spiritual Away", this movie would be a pure bliss. If you are someone who likes Action, Comedy & Love, you would fall in love with this masterpiece immediately.

Bora-Bora Sets the Aura!

Want to know what heaven feels like on earth? Exude in the tranquility of this group of French Polynesians.

By MUKUND SHARMA

"Man cannot discover new oceans unless he has the courage to lose sight of the shore" once quoted French author & Nobel Prize winner, Andre Gide. The world is indeed full of the heavenly blue oceans but for exploring it, we have to let go of the daily stress and the mental toll that dwells upon us.

Nothing has the power to calm your mind more than a peaceful trip. Where you are left alone with your thoughts and your imagination bursts out like an overheated pancake. When summer is waving farewell at us, we should make the best of it.

Soothing every inch of our mind and heart, the tranquility of beaches is something that we all love. The sound of the breeze hitting the cold waves of water sets an aura that nothing else can. This fall, take some time off for yourself because self-love is the best kind of love and after all, healing is also important.

A group of islands located in the deep hideaways of French Polynesia is the ultimate isle of Bora Bora. The sight of this island group when travelling from Faa'a International Airport in a 1-hour long flight to Bora-Bora Airport is nothing less than a traveler's paradise.

Discovered as early as the 3rd century, Bora Bora proved to be the Elysian fields for the early Polynesian discoverers. Earlier, this land of heaven was known as "Pora pora mai te pora" which literally means "Created by the gods".

Today this paradise is considered to have appeared from an extinct volcano for only one reason; relaxation. The short 1-hour flight from Tahiti is an adventure in itself where you get a glimpse of famous Mount Otemanu whose eruption lifted the ocean floor by 2,400 feet into the bright pacific sunlight millions of years ago.

From Bora Bora Airport, take the short ferry across the water for reaching the main island and let your soul dive into the depths of the enchanting experience. The ferry will drop you to the scrumptious melodies of Bora Bora's local musical talent in the island's largest city, Vaitape.

Tahiti culture can be seen wrapped around in the local markets of Vaitape. Almost every craft and commodities you see for sale would be made by locals. You will see passengers passing in cycles and will definitely feel the change in air with Bora Bora's pristine air quality.

We would suggest you to go for, over the water resorts that adorns the seashores like a pearl upon the ocean. These all-wooden and brass made small huts will give access to the crystal-clear water of the Bora Bora. The mind filling view of Mount Otemanu adds up to the experience even further.

Rise to the morning tides and set out on a boat tour to enjoy the aquatic abundance of Bora Bora's lagoon. Sheltered waters are also a unique mesmerizing sight that is not found very commonly. In these sheltered water bunker, lives the friendly black tip reef sharks.

Now, it's time to swap your boat for a bike at Bora Bora's Matira Beach. Here, you can set a friendly vibe with public and share your experiences in the cafes present in the Matira Beach. It is one of the most popular public beaches of the island and provides an encapsulating view that would make everything smoother for you. Immerse yourself in the rejuvenating waters or roll out your towels on the breezy sand and lounge the afternoon away.

DISCOVERED AS EARLY AS THE 3RD CENTURY, BORA BORA PROVED TO BE THE ELYSIAN FIELDS FOR THE EARLY POLYNESIAN DISCOVERERS.

If you are a fan of the tranquil coral life like us, then you will fall for this island immediately. The island is filled with coral gardens and a gorgeous coral reef sits right outside the Sofitel Bora Bora Marara Beach. Mind you, it is filled with stingrays and sharks but don't worry they are as tranquil as this island's every element. You can swim and see yourself crystal-clear in the shining pearly waters.
Tired of the beach and land?

Well, we are too. There is so much sand stuck to our toes now it's time for some terrestrial bliss. 4X4 Jeep Excursions are the right way of exploring here. Often a duo of a guide and a driver tag along with your group but this excursion would not only take you through the undiscovered and less popular place of Bora Bora but will enlighten you with the history of this "Land Created by God".

Well, this is not it. The savoury Tahiti dishes like Foie Gras, Mahi Mahi dish, Poisson Cru, and the sweet dessert like Tahitian Vanilla Panna Cotta will set your tongue on a flavorsome voyage from which returning is difficult.

Overall, Bora Bora is a place full of beaches, nature, and positivity. Relaxation and an escape would be the experience that you would be delighted with here.

RALPH LAUREN
Is Not So Boring

Theme is The Most Important Part of Any Attire. Not Believing Us? Well, Read This Wordy Delight, To Put That Zest Alight!

By MUKUND SHARMA

What you wear, is what you are. Great fashion sense can not only make you look amazing but it is much more beyond that. Your personality, mood, and behaviour gets affected by what kind of fashion trends you choose for yourself. We learn while we see things, fashion works the same way. We learn and adapt. Every second there is a brilliant mind implementing a brilliant idea that would contribute in revolutionizing the world.

Keeping the psychological traits aside, who doesn't like to look good? Everyone does, right? So, what if I tell you that the accessories which go with your clothes play a more important role than your clothes? As hard as it is to believe, it is the truth.

Clothes do play a major role but personality flips as soon as there is a fashion theme. Helping you choose the correct theme for this season Ralph Lauren has released its "The Welington Collection". Let's dive into it before the season is over!

Known for its Polo Shirts, Ralph Lauren has been with us all since 1967. It covers all the consumer demands from mid-range to luxury wear. Recently, the brand has come up with an innovative yet elegant collection known as "The Welington Collection".

INITIALLY, 1967 WAS THE YEAR IN WHICH "POLO" WAS DISCOVERED BUT INSTEAD OF SHIRTS, THEY HAD A COLLECTION OF HANDMADE TIES.

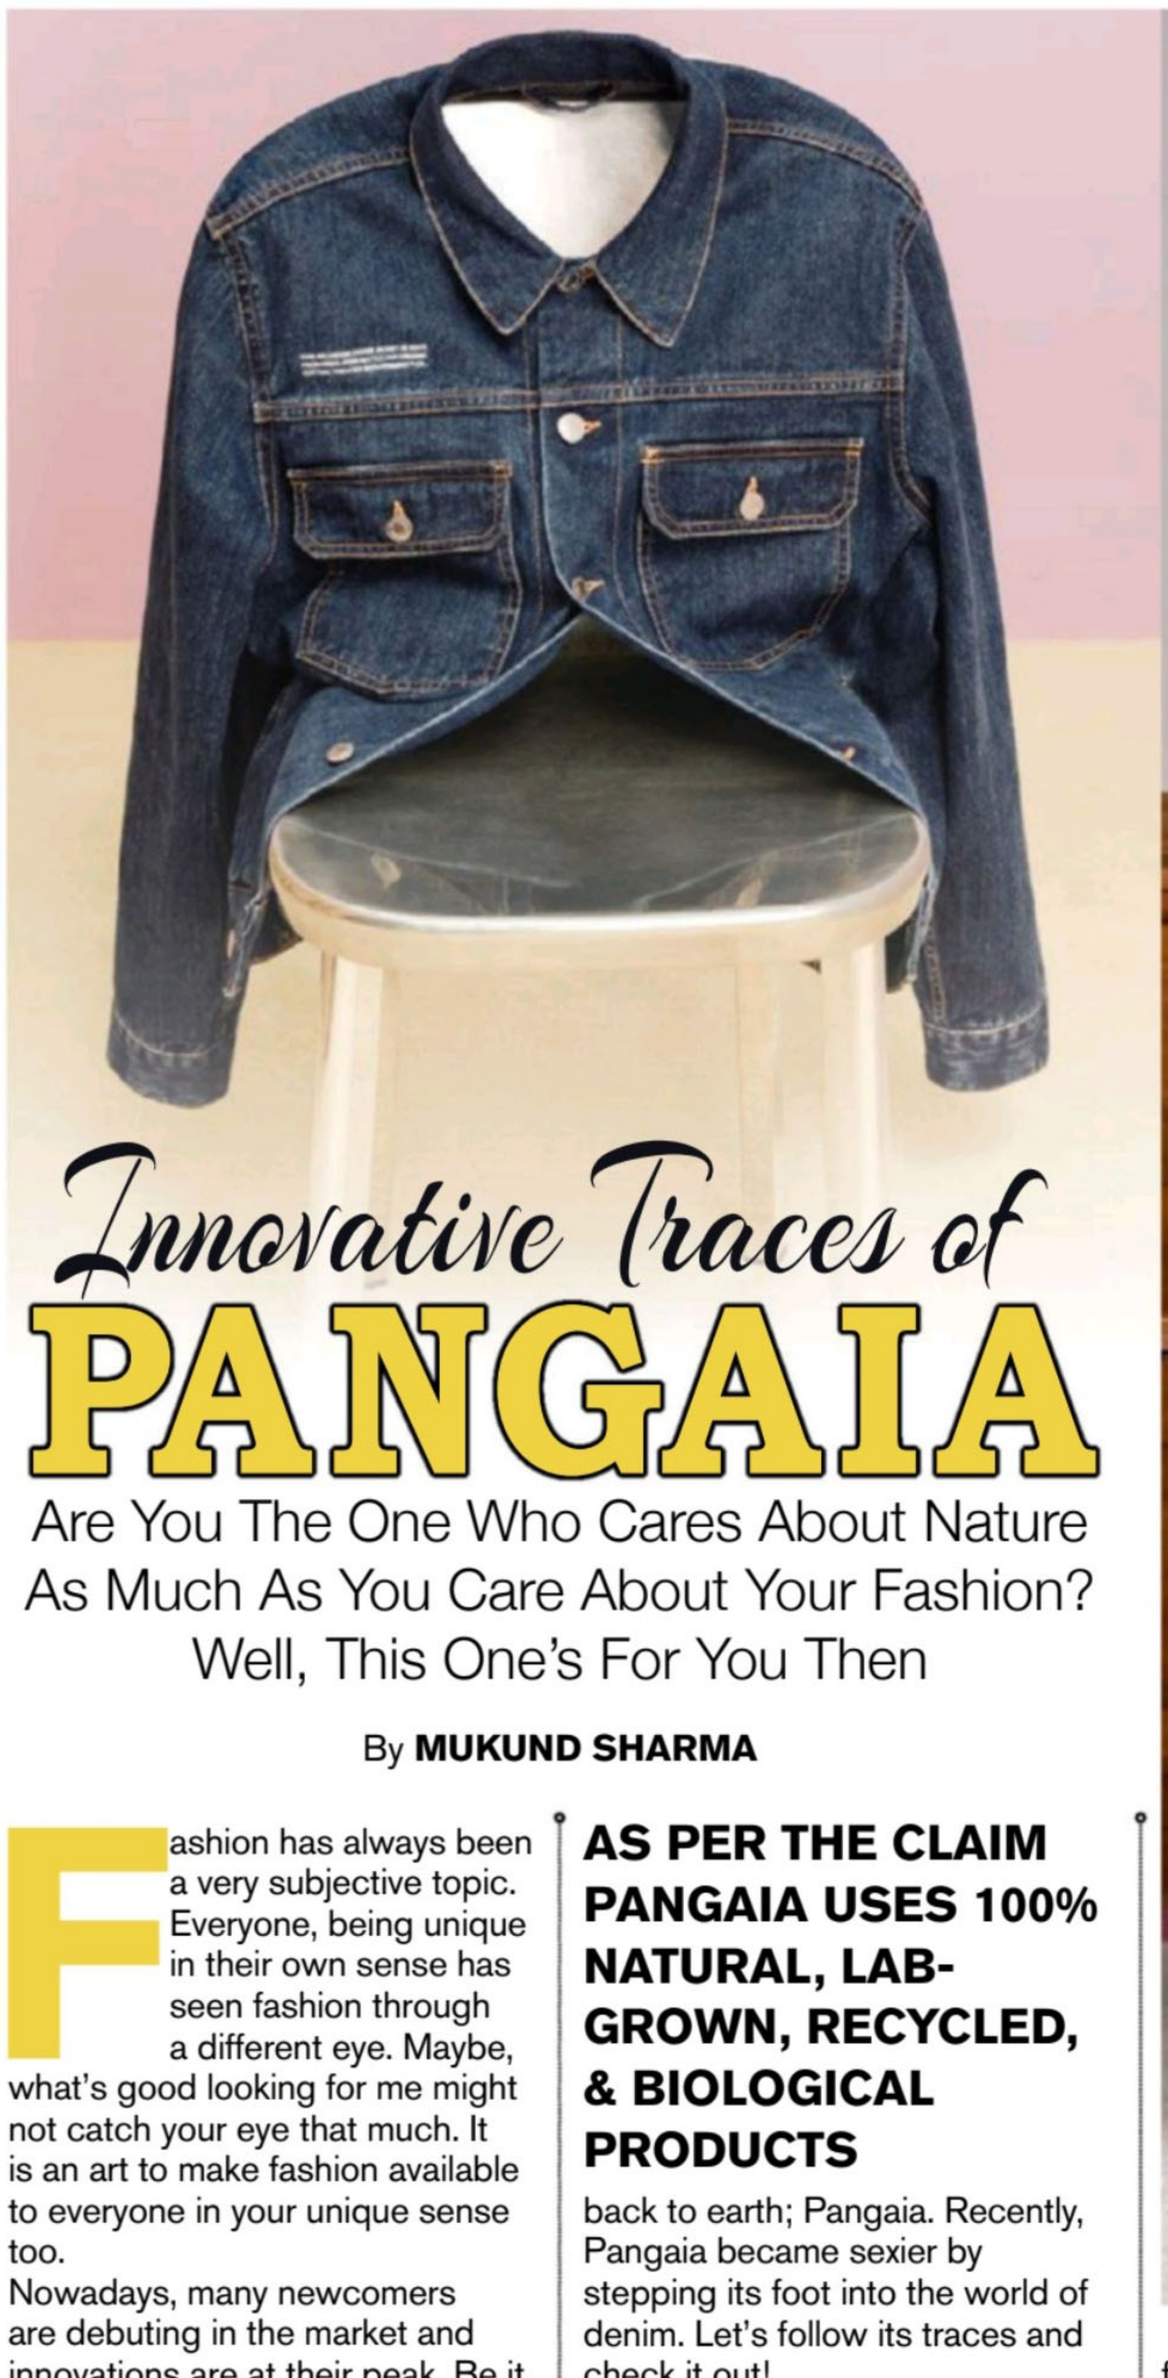
As the name suggests, the collection comprises of shoes, handbags, belts, & small leather goods. A unique insight into the world of leather can be seen in this exclusive capsule collection. From your waist to foot, everything will be adorned in plush leather.

Ralph Lauren calls this collection "The Equestrian Collection" which literally means "The collection for horseback-riders". Designed by Ralph Lauren, elegance is prominent in the design chosen.

They are neither too loud, nor too dull. Hitting the right spot, this collection would be a bliss for the people who love sober designs.

Tan, Black, Brown, and Muddy Red are some of the dominant colours of this collection. Giving the classic boots a contemporary touch, the theme exactly represents what an equestrian wants. Overall, the collection is as alluring as it sounds, but if Ralph Lauren would have been a little bit more contemporary and fashion friendly, more audience would be interested in this collection. Targeting a very specific type of audience, Ralph Lauren has also given some of the racetrack features like shortening the shaft height and adding the brass stirrup on the outer ankle of the boots.

If you are a race-track person, then this collection would be for you but if you are not, you can check out the more contemporary and fashion-friendly collections like The Purple Label collection by Ralph Lauren.



Innovative Traces of PANGAIA

Are You The One Who Cares About Nature As Much As You Care About Your Fashion? Well, This One's For You Then

By MUKUND SHARMA

Fashion has always been a very subjective topic. Everyone, being unique in their own sense has seen fashion through a different eye. Maybe, what's good looking for me might not catch your eye that much. It is an art to make fashion available to everyone in your unique sense too.

Nowadays, many newcomers are debuting in the market and innovations are at their peak. Be it gender-neutral dresses or baggy innovative clothing, everyone has understood the need of having something new.

As every era saw its own fashion revolutions, This era also is seeing the revolution of innovation. Nowadays, the urgency of depleting resources is taking over everyone's mind. Statistics show that we are using up resources twice as fast as the earth could re-generate them.

Keeping that in mind, we have bought a brand that prefers giving back to earth; Pangaia. Recently, Pangaia became sexier by stepping its foot into the world of denim. Let's follow its traces and check it out!

AS PER THE CLAIM PANGAIA USES 100% NATURAL, LAB-GROWN, RECYCLED, & BIOLOGICAL PRODUCTS

Founded recently in 2018, Pangaia is more of a new brand in the books of fashion but don't let its age affect its innovative approach. It's a digital-native sustainable brand that focuses on giving back to mother earth. Pan literally means "All-Inclusive" & Gaia means "Mother Earth". Famous scientists, ecologists, technologists, & designers work together to create environmentally conscious products. Its consciousness doesn't let its chic and premium designs fade away. Talking about the collection, Jonathan Cheung is the mastermind behind these designs. The collection features Unisex straight-legged jeans, Roomy '90s trucker denim jackets. The overall theme of the collection is all-denim-based.

Keeping its essence of nature in mind, Pangaia took use of nature only. With Himalayan Nettle bonded with a tinch of Organic Indian Cotton. The use of the Himalayan nettle is made possible by collaborating with Italy's Candiani Denim which processed it by using their popular water-and-dye method.

This water-and-dye method not only enhances the quality but also holds on to the integrity of the product. Overall, the quality and the natural approach are something that we are not very familiar with right now. Not many denim brands go for this approach and maybe it could hinder the life of the product. It would be right to comment on the longevity of the product when the debut goes live and people start taking the gist of this collection.

GOT A QUESTION TO ASK? FIRE AWAY!

FROM SMALL TO BIG, ALL YOUR SEX-RELATED PROBLEMS WILL BE SOLVED HERE.

Q- Does size really matter?

Like various other things, people have their own preferences when it comes to size. It can be possible that you like a certain type of car while others may have different opinions about it. Likewise, the size of a penis can be small or big, depending on how a person decides to look at it. However, for some, it may just be a matter of bragging. But, don't let such trash talk come in the way of your sexual health. Breaking such taboos is a part of our job.

Remember that size may matter in terms of sexual pleasure experienced by men and women during intercourse. However, it does not matter as long as you and your partner enjoy coitus, without facing any size related difficulties. After all, penetration sex is not the only way of having sexual intercourse. You can try various other options by discussing them with your partner.

Q- Is Sexting considered to be cheating?

Here's the thing about cheating- If your partner is not comfortable or happy with what you are doing, you are probably off-limits. Sexting can be considered cheating if your partner is not okay with it, even if there are no bodily fluids being exchanged. In a relationship, it is important to know what makes your partner happy and angry. It could be that your partner does not consider sexting as cheating or it could be the opposite. Ask yourself if you would feel comfortable sharing this information with your partner. If the answer is no, you're probably cheating. Additionally, good communication is the key to a happy relationship. Talk to your partner about your sexual needs and if you think something is missing from your sex life. It can help.

Q- How much masturbation is too much masturbation?

While some people masturbate more than once a day, some may prefer doing it once a week or more. Masturbation is "too much" only if it is affecting your everyday activities. If you are unable to do your everyday work, go to school, college or office because you masturbate, it may be a problem. But this happens very rarely. If you are concerned that you may be masturbating too much, try taking a break. Recollect your thoughts and give yourself some time. This will surely make you feel better and less anxious. Masturbating more than once is completely normal. But make sure it does not affect your health or hinder your everyday activity.

Q- Where exactly is this "G-Spot"?

"The Mysterious G-spot" has a lot of questions around it. Making it probably one of the most discussed subjects about sex. One thing to remember, however, is that every human body is different. None flawed or broken. Talking about G-Spot, you may be surprised to know that some sex researchers and doctors say it does not even exist. No wonder you had a hard time finding it. Then why such a buzz around G-Spot right?

Well, the G-Spot isn't its own thing. It is usually referred to as a bigger part of the clitoral network. While trying to arouse the G-spot you are actually stimulating the apex of the clitoris. Mostly its internal part. This mysterious "spot" is more of an area, mostly a patch of spongy tissue near the Urethral Sponge. Again, some may get pleasure by stimulating this part while some may not. It completely depends on your sexual preferences. So, instead of focusing on the G-spot, try asking your partner what arouses them.

Q- Is it really important to have sex?

No single answer can suffice this question. Many people enjoy a romantic relationship with their partner without having sex while some may find it necessary. It is completely normal for someone to not like having sex. It is not a necessity. If you are not interested in having sex, it could be due to various reasons. Your libido (sex drive) may be lower than expected, you may have an underlying medical condition like chronic pain, you may not want to indulge in sex before marriage or maybe you just want to avoid pregnancy. A key point to remember here is that having sex does not determine a healthy relationship or health. You can have both, even if you decide not to have sex by making sure your partner is comfortable with it too. And the best way to do that is to communicate.

> “I AM SUPER ADVENTUROUS AND WOULD NEVER SAY NO TO A LAST-MINUTE TRIP TO A FAR-OFF PLACE.”

Let’s start with your journey from the top. What inspired you to be a part of the Fashion and Modelling industry?
I think that it is every young girl’s dream to be a model or work in fashion in some capacity. I was scouted by a representative from America’s Top Model on a California beach just after turning 18. It was this moment that modeling became a goal within reach and later I signed with a modeling agency. I have always been a go-getter and try to be the best at anything I set my mind to. I have a plethora of talents and like to try them out in various ways and don’t want to limit myself to any one thing. Though I have been modelling from a very young age and have the utmost respect for the industry, I also have a career that allows me to utilize my other talents in diverse ways. I have Scottish, German and Spanish roots which I think adds to my drive for success and living life to its fullest. Currently, I have huge respect for the sports and entertainment industry and love contributing to its success in any way I can. I am also a real estate agent and The USC Trojans will always have a special place in my heart.

We heard you are a big sports fan and you love playing sports. Which one is your most favourite?
Honestly, I love all sports and I too am an athlete/ former college athlete. My favorite professional sport has to be hockey. The athleticism that the players exhibit along with the passion and grit makes the sport unlike any other. Though I love all the LA sports teams and they have my unconditional support, the LA Kings will always be my number 1. As for myself, although I am no longer a collegiate athlete, I am passionate about learning new sports and the process that comes along with learning how to do them well. I am proud of myself for being a water sport girl but recently have taken up golf, tennis and the prestigious sport of polo. Yep, on horses. I also enjoy surfing... You will never catch me sitting still as I love to be on the go!

Your work must’ve led you to travel to various places on the map. Which one did you like the most and why?
Yes, I definitely travel a ton for work. Whether it be for modeling or my career in entertainment, I’m always catching flights to different cities and/or countries. I also love traveling and adventures and will never say no to a last-minute trip to a far-off place. I love so many places but I think I had the most fun working in Stockholm, Sweden. I met the most amazing friends and loved every minute of it. If traveling for pleasure, I love Italy for the food and fashion but also love a good trip to the tropics, Hawaii is my second home.

Please tell us what makes your physique such a beauty? What fitness secrets are you hiding?
I am super athletic and I love being active every day. Exercising and eating healthy is everyone›s fitness mantra. I maintain my athletic physique by working out regularly, 6 days a week and sometimes twice a day doing a fun activity that gets my blood pumping. I enjoy strength training and swimming. Aside from staying active and eating clean, I think it is important not to lose sight of oneself. You have to be you and do what’s best for you as an individual. It is important not to let the social pressures ruin your sparkle!

Do you believe in using beauty products? If yes, which products do you use frequently?
I think that being natural is the start of being beautiful. I try to always take care of my skin and body and limit alcohol consumption, though if tequila is involved, I won’t turn it down. I use SkinCeuticals oils for my face and always wear 60 SPF and a tinted moisturizer with zinc from Alastin. I don’t wear a ton of makeup but when I do I prefer Sisley products. I also love cryotherapy, hyperbaric chambers, mani-pedis and massages.

"I AM TORN BETWEEN MEXICAN FOOD, CHOCOLATE, AND TEQUILA. I JUST LOVE GOOD TEQUILA BUT I COULD ALSO EAT MEXICAN FOOD FOR EVERY MEAL."

“EXERCISING AND EATING HEALTHY IS EVERYONE’S FITNESS MANTRA. I MAINTAIN MY ATHLETIC PHYSIQUE BY WORKING OUT REGULARLY.”

Would you identify yourself as a closed nerd or an outgoing extrovert and why?
I am 100% a closet nerd and love learning and expanding my knowledge. I can be outgoing and extroverted; it just depends on the situation. I also have an artistic side and love painting ceramics and designing. My great grandfather was a famous painter and I like to think I have some of his skills in my genres.

What does a perfect weekend look like for you?
Though I love all the excitement and adventures, if I have been travelling a lot for work, I’m not gonna lie, I love coming home to my bed and snuggling up with good company & watching “Ted Lasso” or a Netflix series while eating popcorn and m&ms.

What qualities do you look for in your romantic partner?
It is difficult for me to keep this answer short. I am a Sagittarius which means being independent and free spirit but I’m also a romantic. If I were to name the top five qualities to look for in my romantic partner, that would be Honesty, Loyalty, Respect, Spontaneity and a Sense of Humour.

What are your biggest turn-ons?
- Intelligence is very important
- Wit and Humor. If you can make me laugh, you get brownie points.
- Swag. It’s not arrogance but you gotta have it. It shows you are confident in who you are as a person.
- Spontaneity has to be my biggest quality and something that I find equally sexy in a partner. You have to have an adventurous side and drop what you’re doing once a while for a fun time, crazy trip or sexy date night that is unexpected.

Can you tell us about your guilty pleasure?
I am torn between Mexican food, chocolate, and tequila. I just love good tequila but I could also eat Mexican food for every meal.

COVER STORY

“I AM A SAGITTARIUS WHICH MEANS BEING INDEPENDENT AND FREE SPIRIT BUT ALSO A ROMANTIC.”

What do you think is your favourite feature?

Ask me 3 years ago and I would say my abs. However, these days I'm gonna say the scar I have on my face. I lost the majority of the left side of my face to cancer a few years ago, 3 to be exact. I was bitter and devastated about the situation and how this would jeopardize my life and appearance. The entire experience was life changing and I experienced so many emotions. However, these days I am proud to wear my scar. It reminds me how strong I am mentally and physically and also humble me as we can't take life for granted. It is a reminder every day, while I'm putting on my makeup, that I can overcome adversity and be successful in all that I do. This experience was traumatizing for a young female model in Los Angeles but I had amazing family support and a fabulous group of talented doctors that got me through it all, and that team of doctors is why I am now pursuing medical school and a career as a future plastic reconstructive surgeon.

What message would you like to give to our readers?

Spread love, never judge anyone as you don't know what someone is going through at any given time. Do what makes you happy and never let anyone dull your sparkle. Remember to follow your heart and go after all your dreams.

> “IF YOU FEEL SOMETHING IS WRONG OR DOESN’T ADD UP, GO THE OTHER DIRECTION IMMEDIATELY AND SAVE YOURSELF FROM A LOT OF PAIN.”

What was your biggest learning experience after working in the field of modeling for so long?
The biggest learning experience I have had is to always follow your gut and instincts. There are many people who want to take advantage of young aspiring models and claim they want to help your career, but in fact have another agenda. If you feel something is wrong or doesn’t add up, go the other direction immediately and save yourself from a lot of pain.

With all of the success, it definitely wasn’t easy. Tell us about some of the challenges you faced when you entered the industry?
I unfortunately was the victim of several scams when I first started modeling, due to con artists claiming they wanted to boost my modeling career. I lost thousands of dollars that I never saw again. I have also been sexually harassed on different jobs and photo shoots by photographers and people in the industry at different events over the years. In addition I was a victim of cyber bullying and harassment when I started to get known in my town, which continued for several years. I got threatening messages and letters from unknown people which led to me involving the police. I sometimes still have nightmares about it.

You have seen your grandmother working in the fashion industry, how was it back then and how has it changed over the years?
I was fortunate enough to be a part of my grandmother’s designs from the infant age to the elementary years, being a child model for her designs. My mother told me stories of how she created high end dresses for me and how I used to love play dress up, which I still do. Back then, designs and style of clothes were very different as it was a different time. Today, it is more versatile.

How would you describe yourself in three words?
Kind, loving & ambitious.

What is your guilty pleasure?
Eating chocolate syrup off a spoon.

Designer Dress: Anna Gupta Designs

> “FOLLOW YOUR HEART AND YOUR DREAMS. IF YOU KEEP WORKING HARD AND STAY DETERMINED, YOUR DREAMS WILL COME TRUE, BUT YOU HAVE TO MAKE THEM HAPPEN.”

What is one compliment you love receiving from people around you?
I always get compliments on how beautiful my blue eyes are which I love hearing since I got my eyes from my mother.

How has being a mother changed you as a person?
The day my daughter was born changed my life forever. I would do absolutely anything for her to make sure she has a good and happy life. I work a million times harder now than ever before and I am more driven and motivated to achieve my goals and dreams. I love my daughter more than anything and I can't wait to see her grow into a beautiful woman one day.

Fitness and Health are two very important aspects. That being said, please share some of your fitness tips with us?
To stay in good shape, I work out 6-7 days per week at the gym doing different work outs that work the entire body. In addition, I do a nutrition program daily. It involves drinking 2 plant based protein shakes (breakfast and lunch) and then having a 4-600 cal. But most importantly I start my day by drinking a glass of water to jumpstart my metabolism. It helps me eat less throughout the day because I feel full and obviously helps me stay hydrated.

You have your own perfume in collaboration with Waft Fragrance, tell us about the scent of your perfume and your taste in fragrances?
The name of the scent is Midsommar, which is a direct reference to the Swedish tradition of Midsommar, being that my heritage is Swedish. I wanted to design a scent that represented a summer romance. It has a rose scent to it, which is my favorite fragrance.

Spill some deets about your upcoming projects and future plans?
I have some very exciting projects coming up for different clothing brands, doing catalog shoots, billboard ads, and magazine editorials. My future plans are to keep working to achieve my dream to work with major brands for their catalogs and print ads.

What is the piece of advice you would give to our readers?
Follow your heart and your dreams. If you keep working hard and stay determined, your dreams will come true, but YOU have to make them happen. No one can do your work for you. If you want it badly enough, you will find a way to make it happen.

> “TO BE ABLE TO MAKE A PETITION OF LAW IS MORE MEANINGFUL TO WIN THE CASE.”

Although you came to the USA to study law, you soon turned towards fashion. What inspired you to take on modelling as a career? How has your journey in fashion been so far?
For me, being influential means- “To be able to make a petition of law is more meaningful to win the case.” My journey has been quite interesting and learning for me. I think being able to have an adventurous journey is much important than arriving at the destination.

You’ve been featured in various magazines and you must have been a part of several fashion shoots as well. Would you like to share an experience you’ll never forget?
One of my favourite experiences was the commercials shoot with Nikon golf cool shot 3. We were playing golf while we were shooting the commercial. It is pretty interesting.

Having a career in modelling while also being a Penn State Student must be quite busy. How do you manage to take some time out for yourself?
It is about time management. Every day, before I go to sleep, I make a list of everything I need to do the next day. Then when I wake up, I know exactly where I have to go and what to do. Besides, I set goals for the whole week as well as the month in advance. So, I can better track where I am.

What has been your favourite destination to shoot at?
New York. New York to me is the city that you never get tired of. It is the city where you always find something new.

What are your thoughts on Sustainable Fashion?
Sustainable fashion to me is to buy the asset instead of just buying the clothes from a vintage luxury brand. Like vintage Chanel or vintage Dior. You will find them even after 100 years. The price of vintage Dior or Chanel will stay the same because the value of this item will never fade away. When we have something meaningful or valuable to us, we pass it from generation to generation.

We heard you are quite vocal about empowering models in the industry. Would you like to share some thoughts with us?
I feel females can create more effect than we think in the fashion industry. No matter when it comes. From designers, models to entrepreneurs. No matter which job you do, you are the entrepreneur of your own life.

Dress: Oscar de la renta
Shoes: Louis Vuitton

> “EVERY DAY, BEFORE I GO TO SLEEP, I MAKE A LIST OF EVERYTHING I NEED TO DO THE NEXT DAY.”

If you could change one thing about the fashion and modelling industry, what would that be?
Change the stereotype of how we see other people. Remove the label of how we see others.

We see you have a very stunning physique. Could you tell us what keeps you in shape?
I currently use the keto diet to keep myself in shape and I love it.

How would you describe your perfect man?
I look for these things in my perfect man
- Mentally stable
- Smart Engineer
- Sense of Humour
- Respects Others

What other surprises do you have for us in the future? Would you like to share some insights from any upcoming projects?
I have another movie lined up that will be featured on the AMC Theatre in New York as well as Netflix and Apple TV. So, see you guys next year on tv!

What message would you like to leave our readers with?
Believe in yourself and hope everyone stays safe and healthy this year!

“YES, I TRAVEL A LOT, BUT I STILL DIDN’T DECIDE WHICH IS THE PERFECT SPOT FOR ME TO SETTLE AND CALL HOME YET. I LOVE SUN, SEA, BLUE SKY AND WARM WEATHER, BUT I CAN’T STAND WINTER AND COLD.”

> IF WE TALK JUST ABOUT A FIRST DATE, DINNER IT IS. HE COULD TRY TO IMPRESS ME WITH SOME ROMANTIC SPECIAL PLACE WITH A NICE VIEW AND DEFINITELY IT HAS TO BE EXCITING AND AN INTERESTING NIGHT.

Hailing from the largest country in the entire world, why did you choose to feature in Hollywood rather than the Russian film industry?
My dream came true when I left Russia for my first international job. I always wished to be a model and an actress. I really worked hard, I did ballet when I was a young girl, acting classes, and I went to a few different modelling schools. I always knew that the Russian industry is not big enough and suitable for me. For a few reasons, America namely Hollywood is a magical place. You have freedom of speech, if you work hard, meet the right people and you need a bit of luck of course too, you can make our own path, a way in life which you will be in charge of. We can't compare the Russian film industry with America, with Hollywood. They have different mentality and politics. I enjoy working with different directors, and a variety of people who are in America. I can learn from them.

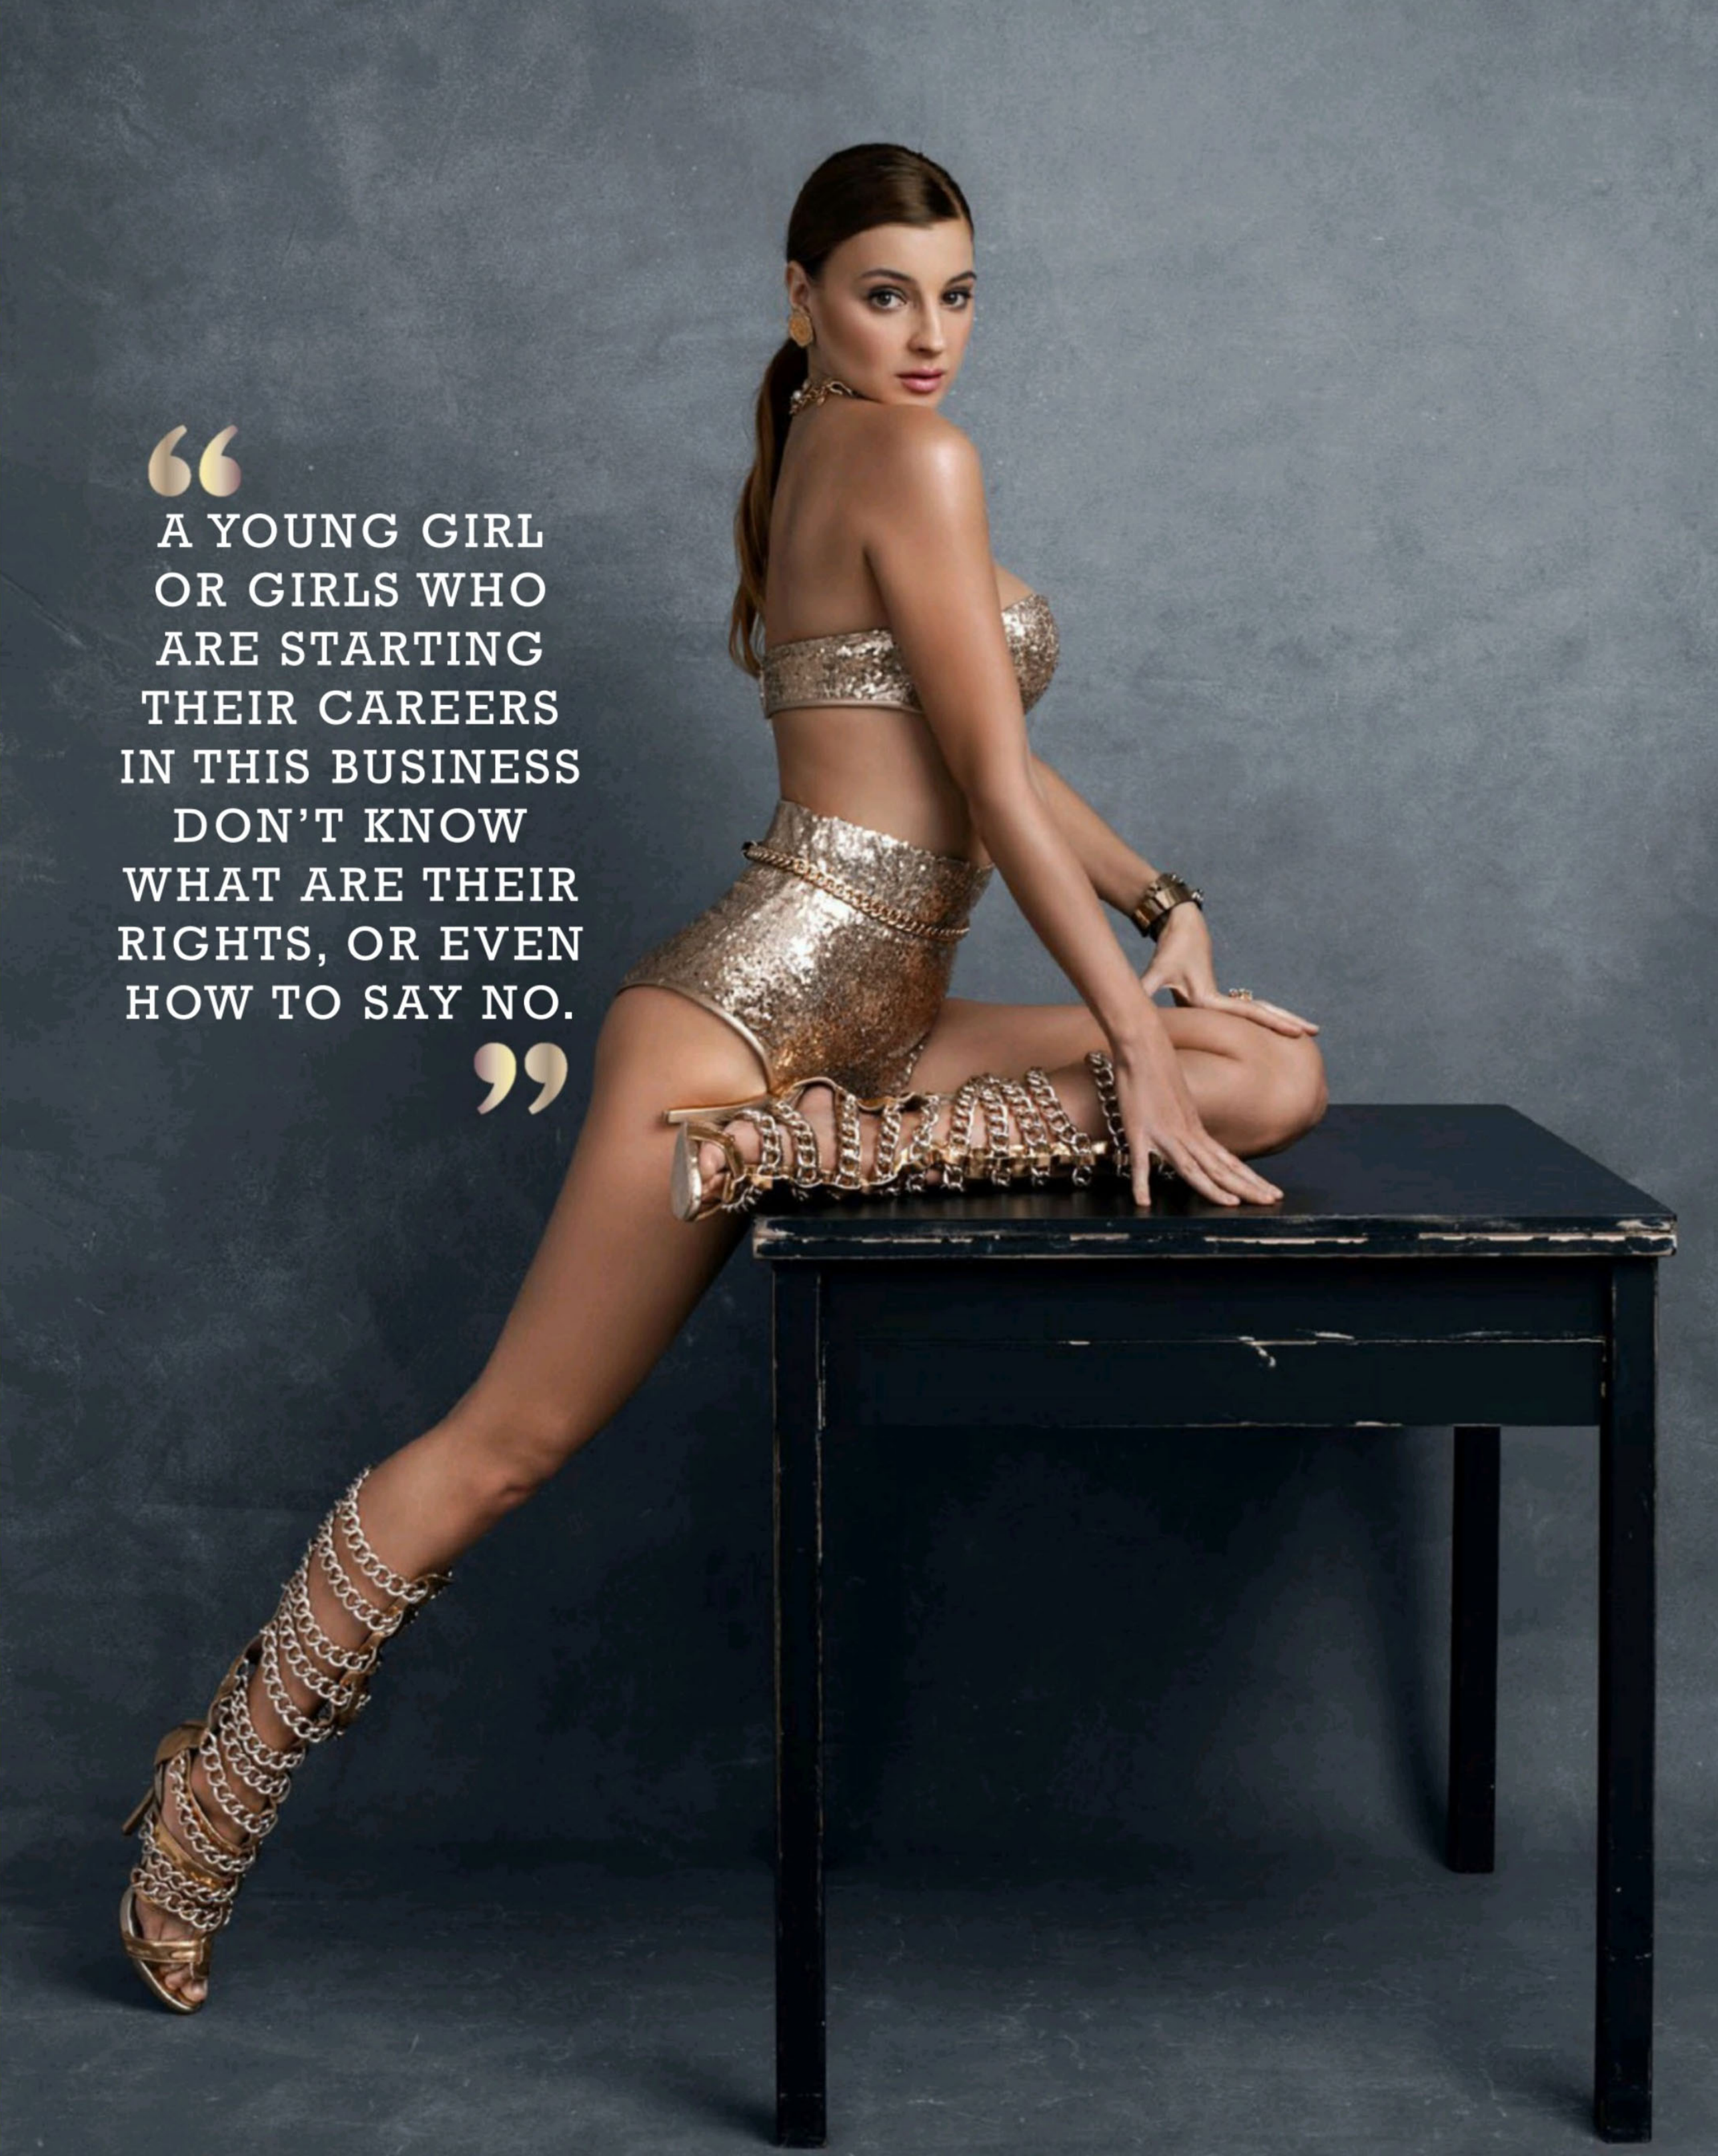
You adorn a natural and glorious glow on your skin. What is the secret behind it?
Firstly, thank you for your compliment, I really appreciate it. I am lucky to have good genes. I am not white; from my family background I am mixed. I love healthy outdoor lifestyle and I spend lots of time outside on the sun, but I never forget to put sunblock. To be Hydrated is the basis of it, I love natural products like virgin olive oil and my favourite is Victoria secret's cream. Of course, I exfoliate my face about twice a week. I sleep a lot; I don't drink alcohol and I don't smoke. I drink plenty of water and fresh vegetable juices and I eat fresh organic food, I love Mediterranean cuisine.

We see you are a backpacker on Instagram. Amongst the wilderness of this beautiful world, what is your favourite spot?
Yes, I travel a lot, but I still didn't decide which is the perfect spot for me to settle and call home. I love the sun, sea, blue sky and warm weather, but I can't stand winter and cold. Challenge in my work is that when I start liking some place, I have to usually pack and move to a different country or continent for another job. Sometimes I feel like airports are my second home. That's why exotic, beautiful island, with blue, warm sea is the best place for me to relax, enjoy and switch off. Is there anybody willing to invite me to some beautiful place like Hawaii?

You have been trending on the popular short-video sharing platform, TikTok. What would you like to suggest to people that are just starting TikTok?
I love dancing, acting and performing on TikTok. It is the perfect platform which tells me how to be in touch with my fans & followers. It's easy, put your favourite song loud, short skirt, crop top, make up a dance, choose some interesting place and just make it happen.

Falling in love with your moves, everyone would like to know more your inclination towards dancing.
Thank you, I think I was a natural since I was a young girl. I feel music very well and I can also sing. Since I was young, I was taking music and dancing classes. I love music and dancing so much. It is the way for me to express myself, to be myself without being judged. And of course, I get lots of compliments when I dance, it is something I can do well.

Being a bold personality yourself, what do you think is the element that makes a female look fierce and audacious?
Elegance, confidence and sexuality makes a real woman. Each woman is unique and different. But if you feel beautiful & are comfortable in your own skin, it will shine through out and men will definitely notice it. Rightly selected clothes, colours which fit to your body type, beautiful shoes, accessories, a suitable perfume and appropriate make up. With these things you can find out what kind of woman is in front of you. Spoil yourself with shopping, yes you deserve it. New collections are unbelievable, new designers are very talented. Be always neat, you never know who you going to meet, even if you are just going outside with a trash can.



“A YOUNG GIRL OR GIRLS WHO ARE STARTING THEIR CAREERS IN THIS BUSINESS DON’T KNOW WHAT ARE THEIR RIGHTS, OR EVEN HOW TO SAY NO.”

> “ELEGANCE, CONFIDENCE AND SEXUALITY MAKES A REAL WOMAN. EACH WOMAN IS UNIQUE AND DIFFERENT.”

How much do you think that fitness is important in everybody’s life? What are some of the things that you do to remain fit?

Fitness and a healthy lifestyle were always part of my life, since I was a young girl. My life was mostly around my dancing, music classes and ballet school. It was very intense and serious at that time. It taught me discipline and also shaped my body in the right way. I am very grateful for the foundations of my childhood. When I got older and began to travel, I discovered other forms of exercising, like jogging, swimming, and healthy eating. You can exercise as much as you want, but if your diet is bad, it wouldn’t make a difference and you wouldn’t feel good. Lots of people stop exercising after a while, because they don’t see and feel the benefits.

We see a unique and eye-catching fashion sense prospering in you. How do you think that entertainment and fashion have evolved since you began working in this industry?

Thank you for noticing. Yes, I would like to call myself a fashionista and sometimes shopaholic (but still in a normal way). The fashion industry definitely exploded with the advent of the internet and social media. It became more affordable for lots of people. I have my online shop & boutique as www.mariarya.com and it is growing every day. I am very proud of it, I put lots of energy into that idea and the business and in expressing myself.

What if someone really falls for you and wants to take you out on a dinner date? What all do you seek in a man?

Ah, you are making me think now. I have a specific taste in men. But also, it doesn’t mean that I don’t want to be surprised. In the beginning he should not push too hard; he should be a gentleman. A man must have a class. If we talk just about a first date, dinner it is. He could try to impress me with some romantic, special place with a nice view and definitely it has to be exciting and an interesting night. In a man I am looking for honesty, he has to be smart, intelligent, creative, funny, and most importantly, a gentleman. I like to be spoiled and pampered. And of course, he has to respect my work.

As a female model or an actress, what were some of the difficulties you faced in the industry?

When I started, I was very young, I didn’t had anybody to help me or advise me about this industry. It wasn’t easy to find and understand boundaries and rules of this strange world. It is very important to say that it is a dangerous world and you need to know how it works. Each country has different rules, you will meet lots of strange people, who will be dishonest & would want to use you or want to just sleep with you. A young girl or girls who are starting their careers in this business don’t know what are their rights, or even how to say NO. Fortunately I had a very strong upbringing, I know how to look after myself and I have a big mouth to say what I always wanted since I was very young. I am a very social person, but I am very busy and travel a lot. Often, I feel lonely but fortunately I have social media and I keep in touch with my fans and followers daily and it makes me feel connected. This has helped me deal with some of the challenges.

What are some of the future projects that you are working on?

So much is going on in my life right now. To mention a few, I work very hard as a model to build up my brand name - MARIA RYA. This has become a famous brand in the fashion and erotic industry. I am proud of the big number of my followers on social media and all my fans. My fashion shop is growing every day and is popular, and I chat with my fans everyday onlyfans.com/melenamariarya. I love to try myself in new roles. I have a huge drive to succeed and I open for new Projects in the film industry and photography. Keep watching and following.

A DOTING Personality

A Fearless woman who enjoys wearing many hats. From negotiating large deals at work to returning home to cook and nurture her family, she has covered it all!

Accomplished Executive, Attorney, Certified Quality Improvement Associate, Actress, Model, Figure Skater, and a Mother. Well, this bold and winsome lady is Jennifer Evans. A simple woman with guilty pleasures of being a lead in the James Bond movie yet a boss lady who has the power to change the world with her talents was a perfect pick for our Anniversary Edition. In an interview with us she shares all about her career, family time and spill deets about her upcoming projects. Read on to know more!

“A PERFECT DATE TO ME IS WHEN I AM WITH MY FAVORITE PERSON. WE COULD BE ANYWHERE, IT DOESN’T MATTER.”

"DON'T LET OTHERS PUT LIMITATIONS ON WHAT YOU CAN BECOME AND ACHIEVE AND KEEP A GOOD ATTITUDE WHEN THINGS ARE TOUGH."

> “I LIKE TO SPEND TIME WITH MY FAMILY, ANYTHING TOGETHER IS FUN. I LIKE TO READ, ICE SKATE AND DO THE EQUIVALENT OF WINDOW SHOPPING ON AMAZON.”

As observed you enjoy wearing many hats and that's what makes you bold and winsome. You are full of talent in so many fields but why did you choose being a lawyer as a profession and later what got you into being an actress and model?
I chose to become a lawyer to be a voice for people who couldn't protect themselves. To serve others. But modeling and acting feed my creativity.

You are indeed one ambitious woman and there are many out there who want to be like you, what would you advise them for their journey?
Don't let others put limitations on what you can become and achieve. Find great mentors along the way, ask questions, and be willing to work hard. Keep a good attitude when things are tough.

How has becoming a mother changed you?
Becoming a mother has made me feel stronger and more capable than ever. I constantly think of how every choice I make could affect my children. I am much more conscientious and less free spirited.

What do you do for fun to relax on a day off with your family?
I like to spend time with my family, anything together is fun. I like to read, ice skate and do the equivalent of window shopping on Amazon.

We have an idea of your love for Bollywood, which movie is your favorite and an actor you absolutely adore?
Devdas with Aishwarya Rai Bachchan.

I was speechless after seeing the film. The choreography, cinematography and acting in Devdas is a master class in technique.

What is your guilty pleasure?
My guilty pleasure is listening to 1980s hard rock love ballads and I would love to be a lead in a James Bond movie and Disney Movies!

Describe your idea of a perfect date night?
A perfect date to me is when I am with my favorite person. We could be anywhere, it doesn't matter as long as we are together and enjoying each other's company.

How do you manage to stay positive at all times, what is your secret?
My secret to staying positive is that I am aware that it could always be worse. Life can change on the drop of a dime and we don't know what the future holds. So I chose to focus on all of the ways that I am fortunate.

We know a lot's been cooking in a professional aspect, spill some deets and tell us about your upcoming projects?
I am the lead role in a fantastic, psychological thrilling movie that I can't wait to share with you soon. It is quite different from anything I have been part of before. Much darker and complex.

What is the advice you'd like to give to our readers?
The advice I would give my readers is to stay strong, enjoy life, put your best foot forward each day and try to find joy in every single day. Even the tough days!

“LIFE CAN CHANGE ON THE DROP OF A DIME AND WE DON’T KNOW WHAT THE FUTURE HOLDS. SO I CHOSE TO FOCUS ON ALL OF THE WAYS THAT I AM FORTUNATE.”

The ideal advice you get is from a person who holds great experience in their field. The model we know who is an expert in her field is Darshani Khodabaks, she has been enlightening the biggest fashion weeks with her charismatic ramp walks and as a cover model. This beauty with brain is her authentic self with humor, spontaneity, and honesty, and admires the same in other people. She even advised our audience to eat healthy, sleep on time, work out, work hard, be kind and disciplined, and follow your heart. Darshani poured her heart out while sharing her experiences, fashion & fitness tips, and the way to receive her special attention in a conversation with us. Read on to know more!

“I AM HAPPY WITH MY BODY SHAPE AND AM ALWAYS WORKING HARD TO MAINTAIN A HEALTHY MIND AND BODY.”

We have seen you shine in the field for a long time now, when you entered the industry what were your goals as a model?
My goals as a model were pretty much to pave the way and make a name for myself in that industry, to walk the runway back to back worldwide walk and work for the largest brands and designers and be on the covers of magazines.

Share with us the first-time experience when you became the showstopper?
It was very exciting and nerve-wracking at the same time but far and foremost like a dream coming true and the adrenaline running through your body. I was exhausted at the end of the show but so satisfied and happy.

If not a model by profession, what would you have been?
Most probably a lawyer or a business strategist as I have completed my education in that field and have a specialization in the field of intermediation.

What does fashion mean to you and clothing brands you swear by?
I think fashion has become a part of the person that I am today and a part of my identity. I am in love with brands like Elisabetta Franchi, Karen Millen, Kenzo, Moschino, Chanel, Zara as well from time to time, the huge Indian designers like SabyaSachi,TarunTahiliani, Anita Dongre and love the outfits of Falguni Shane Peacock.

What is your biggest pet peeve?
My biggest pet peeve are people who show up late for their appointments all the time. I am a disciplined person and find it a form of disrespect to the other person and a form of unprofessionalism if people show up late all the time.

What’s one body part you admire and one body part you wouldn’t mind losing?
I am happy and thankful for my body. I work hard on my diet and fitness regimes, I am happy with the shape of my and always work hard to maintain a healthy mind and body.

From looks to being such a hardworking person, you have it all. How can someone get your special attention?
Thank you so much for the nice words, I guess people can easily get my attention just by being their authentic self. I don’t like pretentious people, you can win me with your sense of humor, spontaneity, and honesty.

Describe a ‘perfect date’ according to you?
My idea of a perfect date is far and foremost that both people should feel comfortable in each other’s company. So I guess it would be having dinner in a nice restaurant with amazing food, definitely long conversations, going to the movies or taking long drives and trips together.

“BE HAPPY AND ENJOY LIFE, BECAUSE LIFE IS TOO SHORT TO BE MISERABLE AND UNHAPPY.”

> “MY IDEA OF A PERFECT DATE IS FAR AND FOREMOST THAT BOTH PEOPLE SHOULD FEEL COMFORTABLE IN EACH OTHER’S COMPANY.”

You have been in the industry for over 10 years now, how has your experience been like so far?
It has been an amazing and crazy ride, I feel so blessed and thankful for the people that I get to know from the industry, the amazing friends that I have made some for a lifetime during this journey, the skills that I have developed from being in this industry and the lessons that I have learned during these 10 years, I wouldn’t have been the person that I am today without being in this industry.

Enlighten us about your upcoming projects?
I am walking the Paris fashion week in October and an amazing fashion week in Dubai in November. So, I am very excited about the busy times ahead, and feel so lucky to have the most amazing agent and manager who coordinate and manage everything for me, that would be Darren Imossi from Imossi Management who gets me the most amazing projects and assignments.

What is the one piece of advice you’d like to give to our readers?
Always follow your gut feeling , be the captain of your own ship and of your own life , eat healthy, sleep on time, work out, work hard, be kind and disciplined, follow your heart and your dreams, and challenge yourself to become the best version of yourself mentally and physically every day. But first and foremost, be happy and enjoy life, because life is too short to be miserable and unhappy.

“GUESS PEOPLE CAN EASILY GET MY ATTENTION JUST BY BEING THEIR AUTHENTIC SELF, I DON’T LIKE PRETENTIOUS PEOPLE”

“MY IDEAL PARTNER IS SOMEONE WHO SEES ME NOT AS SOME MODEL OR CELEBRITY OR WHAT YOU HAVE.”

> “I HAD A MUSIC INSTRUCTOR, WHO DID EVERYTHING IN HER POWER TO ACTIVELY HOLD BACK MY SINGING CAREER SIMPLY BECAUSE I HAD LARGER BREASTS AT AGE 13 OR 14 THAN SHE DID IN HER MID-TWENTIES AND SHE FELT THREATENED BY THAT FOR SOME REASON.”

Hailing from Russia, what do you think is the one thing that you would change if you would be elected as the president for one day?
Oh my goodness, where to begin? There are many things I love about my country, of course. But there are many things that I would like to see changed, as well. If I had to start somewhere, I would strengthen our embarrassingly weak domestic violence laws, which offer almost no protection to those for whom home is not a safe place.

We all saw how beautiful you look in your pictures, What's your secret behind it?
Thank you so much for your kind words. Honestly, it's not a secret or a magic trick. It's all about working hard and working smart. I maintain a strict exercise regimen, and I am very mindful about what I eat, drink lots of water, and keep myself grounded spiritually and mentally as well as physically. If this sounds exhausting, I assure you that there is a plus side. Getting enough rest is also a huge part of maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

Being a plus-sized model, what are the difficulties that you faced in this industry?
Honestly, many of the barriers that I faced early in my career have begun to come down. When I stared modeling, many opportunities were closed to me on account of me supposedly being “too” curvy, and I was told that I needed to slim down, etc. Now, however with the advent of social media, people of all shapes and sizes have been able to discover that there is a “fan base,” so speaking for them that is just as large, if not even larger, than that of the traditional slimmed-down look. Even the high-end fashion designers are now finding that it pays to reach out to and represent various body types, so times have definitely changed for the better in this aspect.

Criticism is something that nobody likes, how do you react when someone criticizes you on social media or in public?
Certainly criticism can sting, but it's important to consider the source and react accordingly. If I see someone leave a nasty comment and it turns out that they have left a trail of similar comments all over the internet, then who cares? These are people with miserable lives and nothing productive to do with their time. Their insults say more about them than they do about the people receiving them. On the other hand, if someone has constructive criticism that is well thought-through and intelligent and specific, then I will often take what they say into account and give it strong and serious consideration. Also, one thing that can be helpful if it feels like criticism is overwhelming is to simply do the math. I add up the compliments I receive, compare it to the criticism, and usually find that the people who wish me well vastly out number those who don't. It's all about keeping things in perspective.

As beautiful as you are, there must be some funny dates that you have been to. Can you share the funniest one?
Honestly, I have never been on a dull date. I guess I've been lucky! One that stands out, was my very first date with someone who I went on to become involved with for several years. We had met online and lived in different countries, and for our first in-person meeting I was determined to make a good impression. I spent months tanning every day as I felt insecure about my pale skin, and as the date drew near, I even decided to do a spray-tan! The end result? When I met him at the restaurant we'd chosen, he didn't even recognize me at first. I also put on a ridiculous long wig, assuming he would prefer long hair, and it fell off when the waiter was filling our water glasses. I was ultimately relieved however, because it turned out he preferred short blonde hair anyway. So I learned a very valuable lesson that night “just be yourself” it isn't simply some tired cliche, it is a motto to live by!

“BUT IN A FEW YEARS, YES, I COULD EASILY SEE MYSELF MARRIED AND STARTING A FAMILY AND EMBARKING ON THAT AS MY NEXT, AND GREATEST, ADVENTURE IN LIFE.”

> “WHEN I STARED MODELING, MANY OPPORTUNITIES WERE CLOSED TO ME ON ACCOUNT OF ME SUPPOSEDLY BEING “TOO” CURVY, AND I WAS TOLD THAT I NEEDED TO SLIM DOWN, ETC.”

Do you think your body is your most powerful weapon or your weakness?
This question is a very interesting one to consider. Certainly when I was young I considered it a weakness. I developed early, as some girls do, and this resulted in many situations that I now recognize to be little more than petty expressions of jealousy, but were quite hurtful at the time. For instance, I had a music instructor, who did everything in her power to actively hold back my singing career simply because I had larger breasts at age 13 or 14 than she did in her mid-twenties and she felt threatened by that for some reason. My singing has always been important to me, so this was devastating at the time. Now however, the tables have turned in life and my body is my greatest asset and the reason I have gained the notoriety that I presently enjoy. So I would have to say, while I would not call my body a “weapon” exactly, it is definitely my friend and ally.

What are the things that you seek in your Mr Right?
My ideal partner is someone who sees me not as some model or celebrity or what you have, but just a regular human being who happens to have attained a degree of fame though a combination of good fortune and hard work. Someone who does not see me as super-human but understands that I have the same wants and needs as anyone else. Someone I can be vulnerable with and real with and yes, even silly with. Someone who is protective and secure and well-rounded and who has their own goals and dreams and sense of determination. Someone who can stimulate me emotionally, intellectually, and spiritually as well as physically. Someone who is not afraid to be themselves and also to let me be me.

Being a Scorpio yourself, do you believe in zodiac signs and astrology?
You have found my weakness! I am a huge astrology buff and can talk about the subject for hours. One of the first things I like to find out about people, in fact, is their astrological sign. Not just people I might be interested in dating, but those I might hire or collaborate with or even just form friendships with. I don’t do this for purposes of excluding people who fall under certain star signs, but to get a general sense of a person’s character so as to better understand what I might expect from them in the future. I don’t believe our specific actions are predicted by the stars, or that daily horoscopes are of much use, but as a tool for defining overall personality traits and motivations, I think astrology is VERY useful, as well as quite fascinating!

What are your plans for getting married and starting a family?
You know, until relatively recently, I was absolutely convinced that marriage and family simply weren’t for me. The thought of a traditional wedding ceremony with the flowing white gown and hundreds of guests I barely even knew was enough to induce a panic attack! Now, however, as I see more and more real-life examples of men and women who have truly equal partnerships and support each other in all they do, and more examples of the truly selfless act of love that is raising a child, I have come to believe that I would very much like to experience all of this after all. I’m eternally grateful that I didn’t rush into marriage at an early age, like so many do, and gave myself time to grow and to discover who I am, but in a few years, yes, I could easily see myself married and starting a family and embarking on that as my next, and greatest, adventure in life.

Do you think that physical appearance plays an important role in one’s success? If not, what would your advice be for the people who feel demotivated by looking in the mirror?
As mentioned earlier, there is every type of body in this world, and also someone who will appreciate it. Clearly, my physical appearance has been a cornerstone of my career, but without the motivation and desire to achieve something with it, I would not have had anything like the life I do today. It takes a combination of elements, only some of which are physical, to get anywhere, and it’s not about what you see in the mirror as much as it is HOW YOU VIEW what you see in the mirror. Your body, ANY body can be an asset if you accept it, yes, but also realize it is only a part of who you are. No one should define themselves as a person based solely on their appearance, nor should they feel held back by it. Learn to embrace your looks as one component of yourself and find ways to not only achieve self-love, but to spread that message! You are worthy, you are unique, and you matter, no matter what you look like!

From Her 'Under' Cloth, To 'Over' Her Bod

Choosing The Right Gift For Your Lady Has Never Been Easy. Dive Into The World of Sexy Lingerie To Make Her Go Crazy.

By MUKUND SHARMA

As hard as it is to be a woman, it is even harder to choose the right gift for a woman. "No man of any intelligence would pretend to know a female's mind" once quoted Julia Quinn, an American author. No man can indeed never decide about what to gift a woman. If you do find the right gift for your lady, then are you even real?

From flowers to chocolates, everything has become boring and pale. Don't let these boring thoughts come an inch closer to your mind. I would rather describe choosing a gift for your lady as an art. An art that is indeed difficult to master, but if you do, Oh Boy! You are getting everything you ever wanted tonight.

One of the most interesting things to gift your lady is lingerie. Now you must be thinking about what's so special in lingerie, Everyone buys them? Here is where the magic lies, choosing the right kind of lingerie for your misses might make you lucky. Let's take you to the world where not many men can enter, "The world of perfect gifts"!

1. BRALETTE

Do you want your lady to be comfortable and sexy at the same time? Well, we have got you because bralettes are pretty much on the top when it comes to comfort. Often, normal bras can be uncomfortable, they might restraint the upper half of the body and can even sometimes leave red marks too.

Bralette is basically pieces of lace with not much or no padding at all. They are comfortable, light, and look sexy too. What's in it for you? Your lady is feeling comfortable. What more do you want? Jokes apart, Bralette could be as sexy as they are comfortable. With the lacey and light design, they cover only the necessary, and the curves are all yours to watch. This could be a great gift for your lady and who knows maybe you'll get your return gift too. wink!

2. BUSTIER

Sounding as sexy as its name, bustier could be the perfect gift for your lady. They were traditionally worn under the top which gives a tad bit of extra support to the lower breasts. Now, as the times have changed, bustier has become naughtier.

Bustier comprise shapewear and a bra in one piece. It would make your lady sexier than ever. By adding extra support to the lower breasts, it would give a definition to your curves. An uplifting, sculpted bust line will run along your body and trust me when I say this, you would fall for her all over again. The extra addition of sexy thigh-high stockings would make up the attire even sexier. Comfort is also something you do not have to care about here. Bustiers are extra supportive, due to lack of lacings, the torso adds an extra layer of comfort. What are you waiting for then? A bustier is a must for her!

3. ROMPER

Want to admire her curves every time you get a chance? Well, a romper is a sure-shot answer to your problem. A romper is basically see-through lingerie that can either be one-piece or either be attached to each other. Mostly, rompers are made with comfortable fabrics and a see-through design. You cannot hold your thoughts when she comes out wearing a romper. It is not sexy but also practical for her. The whole attention is restrained on the torso and hence, not much pressure is felt on the upper half of the body. Go buy a romper before you romp her!

4. GARTER BELT

When it comes to the lower body, a garter belt is a viable gifting option. Also known as the suspender belt, she will definitely suspend herself to you. It is more of an addition to your lingerie with attachable hooks and clips. Want her to look sultry? Well, add some matching panty and bra for a wholesome sexy attire. It goes around your waist all the way to your back and acts as a mediatory. You would definitely feel a tingle when you see her garter belt holding those stockings. Comfort is not much here, but sensuality is utmost.

5. LACEY ROBES

Robes have been the go-to lingerie for ages now. Some women even like to wear robes at night as it provides an airy passage and lets the body breathe. Well, comfort could be taken care of afterwards. But are these lacey robes sexy?

Hell Yes! They provide a translucent design that could ignite a fire in your eyes. They are long and lacey designed pieces of clothes that not only provide adequate comfort but there is nothing more satisfying than removing that around the waist robe-belt. Now it is up to you. Which lingerie would you choose because nobody knows a lady better than her man, Sike!

FRENCH DON'T CARE ABOUT THE WORLD BECAUSE LINGERIE IS USED FOR BOTH MEN AND WOMEN THERE.

Keeping Her NEAT & TIDY

Kittens are innately clean animals; they are known for their personal hygiene. They are generally self-sufficient when it comes to cleanliness, but, being a cat owner does involve a fair amount of home cleaning and care. Here's everything you need to know about making your feline friend happy with these practices.

By TEAM FHM

There are only two types of people on this planet: those who like cats, and those who are wrong. A cat can make a profound addition to any family. That's true. Whether you have toddlers, dogs, or you live on your own, a cat could be a worthy choice. Owning a cat means different things to different people. Some may want to cuddle with them; others are content to just live with an independent cat which spends most of its time outside and doesn't want any human interaction.

It's difficult not to get fond of these furry babies. The love you have for your feline can't be summarised in a few words. Taking care of a cat is not difficult as taking care of dogs, as they do not take much effort and hard work, but they do require a certain amount of care. Although cats are self-groomers by nature, with tongues that act like teeny combs to clean and flat their coats, you will still have to enthusiastically look after them. Your cat can benefit immensely from a systematic grooming and cleaning schedule.

Show Some Love

While cats may not be attention seekers as dogs, they still need your love and want you to spend time with them. You can play with them with a string toy, cuddle with them on the couch, and display as much love as possible. When you spend more time with your cat, they will be more likely to want to be around you. If you are always away or overlook them while they are near, they will get used to this behaviour. To help your cat live their best furry life, use these care tips.

Grooming Your Kitten

Grooming your kitten is not just about making your feline look good: removing dead hair, keeping its skin and coat healthy; will also help forge a friendlier relationship and will give you the chance to check out its overall health state.

Hygiene is imperative when taking care of kittens, but thanks to their short and soft coat, it hardly takes any time as compared to adults. Life will be at ease for both of you if you train your kitten to groom itself from an early age. Most cats will not take your affection for granted, they like to be well-groomed and, the moment they see a brush in your hand, they will come running to be pampered.

Ears: Carefully look over your cat's ears to see any issues including dirt stuck in ears, extreme wax build-up, bleeding, debris, sores, discharge, or inflammation. Also, of concern are ear mites, which are difficult to notice but generally leave a foul reddish/brown discharge in the ear. Cats with ear mites usually scratch their ears.

Eyes: Your cat's eyes should be clear, bright, and free of any soreness or discharge. If any of these signs are present, it could be a symptom of infection, and you should contact your vet for suitable treatment.

Nose: A healthy cat's nose is normally moist and smooth. Soft touching will tell you if your cat's nose has any swelling, bumps or lumps. Do look out for ulcers, along with any other marking or wounds that are taking a long time to heal.

Mouth, Gums & Teeth: Healthy cats have clean and white teeth which are free of chipping. Check gums for any sores or lesions. Gums should be pink and healthy without any redness, bleeding or swelling.

Breathing: Take note of your cat's breathing, it should be effortless and even. If they face shortness of breath or have an erratic rhythm, then immediately check in with your vet.

Coat and Skin: A lot can be told about the state of your cat's health from the state of their coat and skin. If your cat is indulging in extreme chewing, scratching or licking, it may be time for a check-up.

Claws: Indoor cats need routine trimming. Period. If you are not sure about trimming your cat's claws yourself, take your cat to an expert groomer who can do it without causing harm.

Taking Care of Your Furbaby!

Food & Water: Adult cats should be fed once or twice a day. Do ensure that your cat always has a clean bowl of water. Remember, never bother a cat that is eating.

Litter Box: Clean your cat's litter box when it's filthy. Make sure you wash your hands if you have touched your cat's litter or litter box.

Bathing: Most cats pass their whole lifespan without having to take a bath, but occasionally a quick dip is required. You may need a particular shampoo to stop skin problems, such as a hair detangle, etc.

Be Cautious of Poisonous Plants: Avoid specific plants, like lilies, foxglove and philodendron, that can trigger vomiting, lethargy, and in some cases, death.

Secure Electrical Cords: Do secure electrical cords on the floor. Unplug cords that are not used frequently and get cord guards to prevent a mishap.

Basic Cleaning Supplies: You may want to stock up on some basic cleaning supplies:

- Dust wipes to keep their hair under control.
- A urine remover that is safe for your home fabrics.
- Plastic liner bags for litter pans.
- Bleach to disinfect the litter box.
- Disinfecting wipes or multi-purpose cleaners.

Visit the Vet: At least once a year, take your cat to the veterinarian to make sure it's healthy. Your cat will occasionally get vaccines, and medicine to help counteract fleas and worms.

Here's why you need to try these delicious Japanese dishes right now for a flavourful taste. Every bite of these cuisines will leave you speechless and wanting for more.

By AYUSHI SINGH

Whether you are slurping a mouthful of Ramen or tasting the delightful Tempura, Japanese cuisine gives just the right feels. Not only do traditional Japanese dishes make your belly happy but also brightens up your mood. These dishes come all the way from the treasured history of Japan that denotes its rich tradition and culture to its fullest. A few modern touches and you are all set to feast on some appetizing meal. After having tried everything on the list, I can say this with confidence, this is all you need on a dull day. Enjoy!

1. SHOYU RAMEN

Pretty much everyone has heard of ramen at least once in their life. The traditional way of making and serving ramen has appeared many times in your favourite anime. A perfect mixture of some tasteful noodles along with your preferred meat, some bamboo shoots, fresh chopped scallion and a mouth-watering broth is what usually makes good traditional ramen. Ramen can be found around every corner of Japan. Shoyu ramen, on the other hand, has a vast following in Tokyo. Shoyu means soy sauce in Japanese. Hence, Shoyu Ramen refers to a bowl of ramen served with soy sauce-based broth, usually in clear brown colour. This dish is so delicious that you won't be able to stop slurping.

2. ONIGIRI- RICE BALLS

When we talk about Japanese food, we cannot miss out on Onigiri. This simple dish has been perfected by Japan and it is now a major part of their culture. Onigiri refers to rice balls. The surprise is usually inside an ordinary-looking rice ball. A savoury filling greets you from the inside when you take a bite of rice wrapped in a salty sheet of nori seaweed. It is majorly a part of Japanese bento lunch and can also be found easily in stores around Japan. If you are looking for a light meal, this can be your go-to snack.

3. SUKIYAKI

Sukiyaki is a seasonal cuisine in Japan. The delicious-looking meal is prepared in a shallow iron pan which encompasses a variety of flavorful veggies. It is commonly enjoyed in fall and winter. This is the dish to turn to when you want to have something of a full meal. To cook this delicacy, one uses a thin slice of meat, green onions, mushrooms, tomatoes and tofu. Sometimes, people prefer conventionally preparing Sukiyaki themselves by grilling the vegetables and completing it with a few drops of Sukiyaki Sauce. The result is satisfying, gives you a full belly and some needed warmth in the cold season.

4. UDON WHEAT NOODLES

The uniqueness of Udon lies in its thick noodles, making it a very popular traditional dish in Japan. Flour and seawater are used to make the authentic dough which is then cut into thick noodles. After this, the noodles are boiled in hot water and enjoyed with seafood broth. To add more complexity, people also top their noodles with soup or toppings like tempura. You can eat these noodles hot or cold, as you like. There is no one way of eating this extraordinary dish.

5. TEMPURA

Tempura is a famous Japanese snack that can also be used as a topping for various foods like Udon in the previous section. Although Japanese cuisine does not include the deep-frying process much, this is probably one of the very few dishes where Japan uses a lot of oil. Tempura involves seafood, meat and vegetables, covered in batter and deep-fried in oil. This famous batter is usually flour and egg, giving Tempura the much-needed crunch. This dish is commonly sided with Tentsuyu which is a sauce made with broth from kombu or dried bonito, mirin and soy sauce. You can also add ginger or radish to give it a personalized touch. Its appetizing taste will surely leave you longing for more.

6. MISO SOUP

Among other dishes, Miso Soup of Japan is considered to be the healthiest. So much so that Japanese locals prefer and suggest drinking this soup daily. You can drink this soup with other side or main dishes. Miso soup can be prepared with fermented miso base added to Japanese Dashi which is a conventional mixture of bonito and kelp. However, there are regional variety of Miso soup, each with a different texture and taste. Some may prefer adding seaweed while some may prefer adding a variety of vegetables. While having traditional Japanese food, make sure you don't miss out on the authentic taste of Miso Soup.

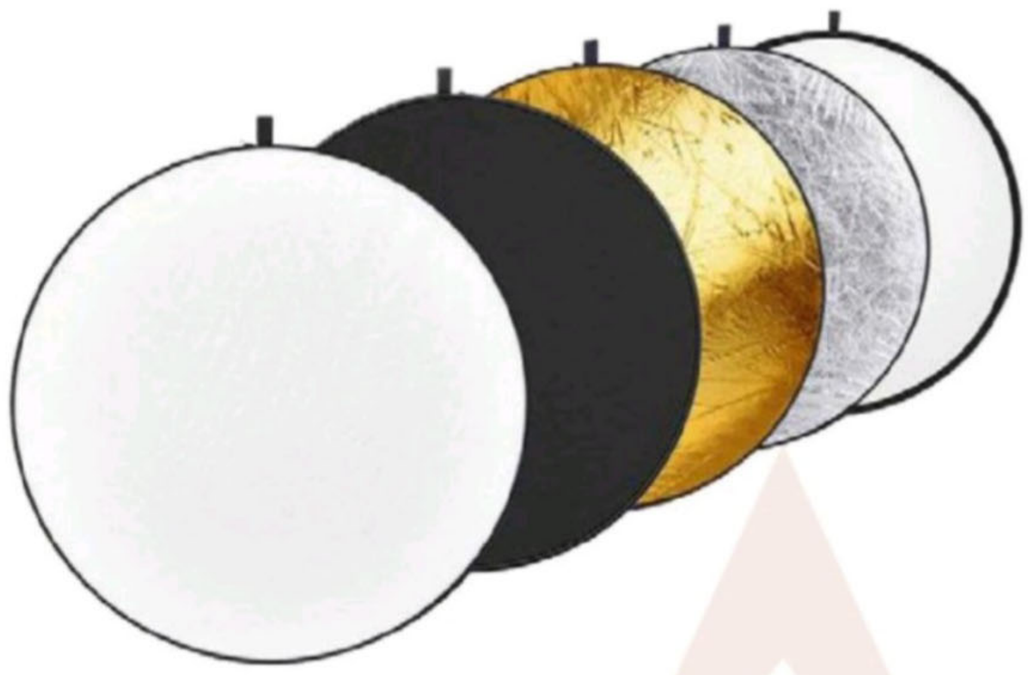
This particular flashgun from canon has the power to support both radio and optical communication. The brand also claims that "Speedlite 600EX II-RT achieves a maximum continuous flash output of 100 times" which is quite splendid.
For professional-level shooting, this flashgun is marked as the best based on performance as well as reliability.



5. REFLECTORS
Reflectors are essentials known for filling lights or creating catchlights. What's best that they don't need any batteries, or cords to function. A piece of perfect equipment for lighting techniques. These come in 5 unique colors - Gold, White, Black, Silver, and Transparent and every color caters to different needs.
The Neewer Collapsible Multi-Disc Light Reflector is a great option to buy because of its perfect size to carry everywhere. The brand promises to give durable and flexible frames that are super easy to spread and close.
While choosing from all five colors, you can opt for the translucent one as they are considered as the ideal reflectors for both indoor and outdoor photography to give a softer look and remove shadows.

EQUESTRIAN

A Sport Played by Man and Animal

It is a partnership between horse and human. Both horse and rider are true athletes in this sport. Equestrianism means a series of skilled activities performed by a horse and its rider. The renowned ones are the competitive sports of dressage, jumping and eventing.

By TEAM FHM

Our perfect acquaintances never have less than four feet. Horses are some of the most gorgeous animals loved by almost everyone. They signify supremacy and courage most elegantly and motivate people to be independent, assertive, and courageous. This creature with unmatched splendour, immense vigour still remains modest and humble enough to carry a man upon his back like a mother.

For a long time now, horse riding has been considered one of the most majestic activities. Humans and horses have a long and beautiful saga of working together, so it is no wonder that the world has enjoyed equestrian sports for centuries. Horse riding is called equestrianism, which is considered a sport and is great fun. Building a beautiful connection with a horse indeed makes horse riding such a great experience.

What is Equestrian?

Equestrian is an exclusive Olympic sport where a horse is as much an athlete as its rider. In fact, it is the only standing event at the games that comprises an animal. Not only this, but it is also the only Olympic sport where men and women compete against each other in the same event. Hence, it is a distinct sport in many ways.

The Absolute Basics

- Dressage, jumping and eventing are the three equestrian disciplines.
- In dressage, the rider and horse enact precise movements to music.
- In jumping, horse and rider jump over barriers as fast and as accurately as possible.
- Eventing is an exceptional blend of the above two disciplines - dressage, jumping and cross-country riding on over a 5 km course with around 30 hurdles.
- If the horse or the rider fall, they get eliminated from the game. They get penalties when a horse refuses to jump over a hurdle. If the horse and rider finish a course slowly, they get a penalty.

What happened at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics in 2021?

There were loads of unforgettable moments from the equestrian competition at Tokyo 2020, in 2021. Dressage extraordinaire Isabell Werth and rising star Julia Krajewskicame together for Germany in what was a very successful equestrian Olympic campaign for the nation. They got 3 out of the 6 golds with Jessica von Bredow-Werndle adding individual dressage gold. Right behind them, Great Britain, Sweden and the US also produced some impeccable rides to round off a fascinating 15 days of thrill and action. The Indian equestrian, Fouaad Mirza and his horse Seigneur Medicott ended 23rd in eventing. He was one amongst the 25 from the field of 63 who made it through the final.

Did you know that more than 300 horses travelled to Tokyo to compete in the Olympics and Paralympics? The four-legged athletes even had their own passports. 19 Airplanes and 185 truck journeys were required to transport the equine travellers.

A Sport Full of Surprises

Since you have come so far reading this article, you are most likely an equestrian or a true horse lover. You might already know that this world is full of surprises.

Gender-Equal: There are no men's and women's divisions. It is the only Olympic sport where men and women participate and compete together. In short, Equestrian is gender-equal. Do you want clean, unabridged fairness between the sexes? Then look no further than equestrian, because it's the one sport that really fulfils this requirement.

Best diversity between ages: It is a sport for all ages as well. No other Olympic sport, not even golf, which is popular in this context — claims a better diversity of ages.

Only Olympic sport that involves animals: This sport raises the idea of teamwork to a different level. Riders have to be the champion of their own training, along with an animal that can weigh over 1,000 pounds. Clearly, one can make a strong case that there is no bigger challenge in all of the sports.

The Pampered Life: Not only the riders but the horses also are treated like kings and queens. Don't get surprised if we tell you that some of them even have their own personal psychologists. Equestrian sports also keep the mental and physical state of the horse a priority. Thumbs up!

Royal Outfits: Would you not like to wear a good top hat every now and again? By the way, there is no other sport which does competition in a costume. Like a real costume? They all look ready to leave for a wedding…that's wonderful Equestrianism is not only a sport, it is an art to give tribute to the history of the bond and communication between rider and horse. Equestrian Olympic events stage the best of the best games.

Time To Go Handbag Shopping!

A New Launch by the Michael Kors will come with you hand-in-hand on your big day. Read on to Know!

By ESHIKA CHOPRA

We know, "Handbags speak louder than words" and we bring to you the ultimate bag from a luxury brand that expresses your personality in a mind-blowing approach. Michael Kors, founded in 1981 today is a globally renowned brand best known for its accessories. When it comes to handbags Michael Kors has been leading in our purse sacks for a long time now. With its sophisticated elegance in each piece, they have gained enormous love and made content customers. With each passing collection, the brand is winning hearts. It caters to all, be it a formal elegant bag for the office, for shopping, and even for a dinner date. The price factor is a discussion for some other time owing to the fact that the bag we have today is a must-have in your wardrobes.

DO YOU KNOW THAT MICHAEL KORS IS THE LAST AMERICAN BRAND THAT DOESN'T LOOK FOR STYLE INSPIRATION FROM OVERSEAS? GRAB THE ORIGINAL DESIGNS NOW!

We look out for bags that contemplate our outfits and give a more chic look to them and Michael Kors has heard us. The brand recently introduced its Hamilton Legacy satchel with Bella Hadid, the supermodel, Cindy bruna and Geron McKinley are starring the campaign. The entire campaign is highlighting outerwear excessively.The idea behind creating the bag is adventure and reconnecting with old friends. Without a doubt, it has become the talk of the town. Let's all agree to the fact, Michael Kors signature print isn't going anywhere anytime soon and the adoration for the same keeps on increasing. The Hamilton Legacy Satchel is crafted from the signature print canvas and Michael Kors' smooth leather. We can skip the hesitation when it comes to quality as Michael Kors has proved its worth time and again.

Speaking of volume, it does have enough space and measures 15.5" W X 9.5" H X 6" D, the brand also claims that this beauty can hold a laptop and other daily essentials, but we highly doubt that. With only two compartments divided by the center zip and two snap pockets in the back and front, you wouldn't pick this one out while traveling. But for a brunch with girlfriends or on a office day with less work it would be an exquisite choice.

Another interesting addition is a polished chain-link pendant of gold-tone in front which gives it a poise and luxurious aura. Coming onto the handle, attention has been given and the bag is made quite firm and durable. The gussets on the sides are also adjustable which makes it a pretty versatile bag. However, if you are person with no handbag awareness you might end up damaging this one as bags are similar to toddler responsibilities.

cockpit ensures greater visibility and control. You will feel the lap of luxury the minute you enter your car. The seats are also comfortable with adjustable height, squab, backrest angle, and fore position. This beast as promised by the brand will get your adrenaline pumping. The look is very defined with three great colors. Attention has been given to each detail without failing. The steering for that matter provides perfect control. Overall, the new Macan is the new deal.

6. GMC Yukon

A sophisticated car with basic technological features is a great pick too. GMC yet again offers two V-8 engines in the Yukon. This one by the brand comes with a 10-speed automatic transmission that offers either rear- or all-wheel drive. Starting from the exterior, LED headlamps and taillamps are making a statement. The interior features

7. Genesis GV80

This first SUV by the brand is “designed for all” A six passenger car with independent second row seats. The exterior demands attention leather and four exquisite color schemes. In some details, wood has been used intensively on side handles and center cupboard area.

with its elegant design. With 22 inch tires this car provides a stable stance. Speaking of the interior, finest materials have been used in the making of this beast. What stands out the most is the nappa leather seat quilting and center console in 2nd row seats. The use of genuine wood trim gives a look of authenticity.

With a 2.5 turbo gaslight engine and a maximum power of 3,800rpm the driver will feel the lap of luxury while riding on this one. Nonetheless, the technology is also well developed. The GV80 promises to deliver 25 mpg highway. This one is also great in driver-assistance features that provide proper safety measures too.

Lastly the favorite part, the infotainment system of the car does not compromise. It holds a 14.5-inch infotainment touch screen in the middle of the GV80’s tailored dashboard. For the driver it is made easy with the click wheel controller in the center console. This will indeed prove to be a great ride with a plethora of features.

Add Some ZUMBA TO YOUR DAY

Here's why you need to stop wasting your time and start doing Zumba now. With these amazing fitness benefits, Zumba can be your ideal fitness routine anytime you want.

By AYUSHI SINGH

You need to ditch the monotonous workout with heavy weights at the gym which is not only bad for your muscles, but also your heart. Instead, you need to plug in some music and start doing Zumba. It is the more fun way of doing your workout. Being a fusion of various dance moves including Salsa, Merengue, Flamenco as well as Reggaeton, Zumba is like attending a fitness party. And who doesn't love some dancing party right?

Zumba's popularity has significantly grown in the last few years. The Latin-dance inspired workout has reached over 12 million people via 110,000 sites in around 125 different countries. Why should you stay behind? If you are still not satisfied with the idea, here are some benefits of encapsulating this exercise in your daily workout routine:

1. GET RID OF THAT UNWANTED BELLY FAT

Zumba gives the much-needed extra push to your muscle groups like abs, glutes, triceps, hamstrings and quadriceps to go the extra mile and strengthens your core quite effectively. A strong core is very essential in order to stay fit. Along with this, It also reduces body fat. If you are looking for a way to cut that belly fat of yours, This could be the right exercise for you. Plus, you can also build six-pack abs with this exciting workout without having to depend on heavy equipment.

2. IMPROVE YOUR CARDIOVASCULAR HEALTH

Doing Zumba will increase your heart rate which gets the blood flowing throughout your body. It lowers cholesterol levels and boosts some important cardio endurance. This way, It can offer various cardiovascular benefits as well. By doing so, It also improves your mental health and keeps stress at bay.

Alongside this, Zumba also reduces any risk of catching any severe illness including diabetes, stroke, etc. By increasing energy levels, It keeps your diabetic levels in check and lowers the blood sugar level. However, do not depend on Zumba completely. Remember to check with your doctor when things are way too risky and follow their advice before beginning with your exercise routine.

3. BURN SOME CALORIES

40 minutes dedicated to a single routine every day for a full-body workout can burn around 369 calories. Surprised? It can even burn calories in an hour of workout. HIIT Zumba sessions are a wonderful option to reduce some unwanted subcutaneous belly fat. It burns more calories than aerobics, kickboxing, or power yoga in the same amount of time. A key point to remember here is that the number of calories you burn depends on how long you work out. The longer you work out, the more calories you will burn.

4. BE FLEXIBLE

Zumba can improve your flexibility effectively. Our everyday jobs in front of the screen, sitting in one position all day has made our bodies stiff. Exercising in the gym and lifting heavy weights is not an ideal solution to tackle this situation. Zumba helps you get rid of this stiffness in a much better way. By moving your body and performing some high energy exercises, you can see the flexible change for yourself. The area around your hips and the midsection gets a lot more movement done after you start Zumba. Jumping, lunges, engaging in strengthening leg muscles and other such exercises can not only make you flexible, but it can improve your body coordination as well.

5. BUILD MUSCLE MASS AND TONED PHYSIQUE

If you add this exercise to your regular fitness routine, you can get leaner, healthier and have a much-toned physique. A special thing about Zumba is that its movement engages almost every muscle in the body with various exercises. This helps in toning your body and increasing muscle mass. You can also add some weight exercises if you want some significant muscle growth. It will improve your muscle tone in your legs and glutes. High-intensity exercises can tone your entire body and still be gentle on your joints.

6. HAVE FUN WHILE WORKING OUT

Grooving to the beats of music as you do some important exercises that are healthy for your body sounds fun. Zumba lets you mix fun with exercise. Moving to the beats of music increases your fitness level. It also helps in releasing some necessary hormones in your body that make you feel good. If you decide to have a Zumba session in the morning, you may feel energized and good throughout the day. You can even choreograph some steps for yourself and let the magic flow. All in all, Zumba is great. So, get some music and start exercising!

GROOVING TO THE BEATS OF MUSIC AS YOU DO SOME IMPORTANT EXERCISES SOUNDS FUN RIGHT? ZUMBA LETS YOU DO THIS AND MORE.

50 Shades of Dark Circles UNDER MY EYE

Touch the Skin Under Your Eyes. Did You Feel Any Puffiness?
Oh Boy! We Have to Talk About Something Here.

By MUKUND SHARMA

Skin-care becomes care-less when it comes to men. For decades, skincare has been associated with females only. Beauty products for women have been taking space on the shelves and are in great demand, on the other hand, men just don't care about their skin and wellbeing.

Going to gyms and pumping up those huge muscles is considered fit and fine, but is it? No, you are not fit when your skin is speaking the other way. It is as important as going to the gym and jogging a mile. Devoting a wee bit of time to your skin will ramp up your personality like nothing else. The glow that you will get from a healthy skin is unmatchable and will not only make you look good but also boost up your confidence.

We dug up a little bit and found that dark circles and puffiness are indeed a very common skin problem that a man has to go through. I mean who likes the heavy dark circles beneath their eyes? Exactly, no one. Stay tuned to find out how you can make your dark circles disappear like the woman behind the curtain in a circus!

CAUSES

Before getting to the part where we tell how to avoid them or make them vanish, first it is important to know the root cause of dark circles and puffy eyes. The foremost reason for getting dark circles is age. As you get older, the oil accumulates beneath the eyes in form of baggy sacks.

Fatigue is also a very prominent factor that can contribute to dark circles. When your sleep schedule gets bad, dark circles can worsen day by day. Over and under sleeping both are the signs of a disturbed sleeping schedule. Constant strain on the eye also makes your eye work excessively. For focusing properly and balancing the light, our eyes have to make extra efforts. These efforts, if multiplied on a daily basis, can be the reason for those dark circles.

For some of you who love to go natural and don't like to expose your skin to the harmful chemicals that could be found in cosmetic products, we got some all-natural remedies that could heal you up. But remember, natural remedies need patience.

1. CAFFEINATED TEA BAGS

Tea bags have been known for possessing some rejuvenating anti-oxidants that can help in lightening the dead skin cells or removing them. Green tea in particular is also known for having anti-inflammatory properties which can help in removing those under-eye bags.

Take 2 tea bags and let them rest in the refrigerator for about 15-20 minutes. Take those tea bags out and squeeze the extra liquid.

Carefully place them under your eye for 15-30 minutes and let the magic work.

2. COLD COMPRESS

Cold compressing can also be very beneficial for the affected area. It does not just feel good and cold but it increases the blood flow under the eyes, making those under-eye bags disappear like they were never even there.

Cold cucumber, Wet washcloth, Chilled teaspoon, and frozen bags could be some of the DIY cold compressors. Now it is your time to shine, be creative and choose the best for you!

3. PROPER SLEEP AND HYDRATION

Sleep and fatigue can be major contributors when it comes to dark circles. A healthy sleep ranges anywhere between 6-9 hours. When it comes to being hydrated, a healthy person should consume anything between 1-3 litres of water in a day.

PRODUCTS TO USE

Although using external products for dark circles help more in hiding the dark spots instead of healing them. We have sorted some of the best under eye dark circle remover for all of our men. Because why should girls have all the fun?

1. CLINIQUE SMART CUSTOM-REPAIR EYE TREATMENT

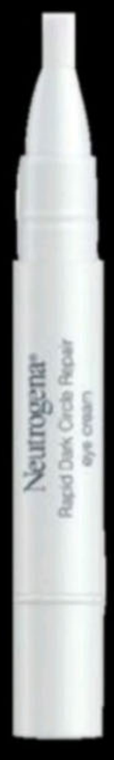
An American skincare giant serving everyone since 1968, Clinique has been making some of the most influential skin care products. Constituting Seaweed extracts, Hydrolyzed rice protein, and grape seed extracts, Clinique Smart Custom-Repair Eye Treatment is one the best for removing puffiness and lightening the affected area.

2. KIEHL'S FACIAL EYE FUEL

Revitalizing the under-eye till its deepest core, Kiehl's Facial eye fuel is indeed a vital fuel for your eye. Full of Vitamin B3 and caffeine, it nourishes the skin and helps in setting correct radiance. Caffeine also helps in reducing the puffiness of the affected area.

3. NEUTROGENA RAPID DARK CIRCLE EYE CREAM

Parented by Johnson & Johnson, Neutrogena is known for its quality and effectiveness all along. Neutrogena Rapid Dark Circle Repair Eye Cream is not a repair cream but instead an under-eye moisturizing cream to get that glow back.



4. LANEIGE EYE SLEEPING MASK

Uniquely coordinating Vitamin P in it, the Laneige eye sleeping mask is a mask that will rejuvenate, revitalize, and brightens the skin under your eye. Apply it overnight for best results. Caffeine is also an eminent component that helps in reducing the puffiness under the eye.

The Wait Begins...

Imagine waiting for almost 88 years to hear the album that's creating all the hype in the world. Read on to know more!

By ESHIKA CHOPRA

"Home is where the record player is", an all vinyl record collectors will support it. Once used widely since Taylor Swift was born is now stored to maintain the aesthetic of that pleasing-looking shelf with books. Vinyl Records are the first thing to come to mind while speaking of the music industry. Even today, some music lovers hold a charming collection of Vinyl by the most amazing singers of all time. Honestly, the joy of adding to the collection is something that only hoarders would understand. Speaking of additions, this time around in 'Object of Desire' we have the most expensive vinyl record ever sold at $2 Million, Once Upon A Time by Wu-Tang Clan.

The album is marked as a legend in history. After working on it for almost six years, Wu-Tang Clan only produced one single copy of the 'Once Upon A Time' album with 31 tracks. What's even more intriguing is due to its legal restrictions the current owner of the album cannot release it and the commercial release of the album is only possible in 2103, which is almost 88 years since its finalization in 2015.

To give you something while you wait for the release, all members of the group, Wu-Tang Clan—RZA, GZA, Inspectah Deck, Method Man, Raekwon the Chef, Ghostface Killah, U-God, Masta Killa, and Cappadonna appear on the tracklist. Apart from this, the group has a symbolic meaning to the length of time the group started with eight members, the digits in the year 2015 add up to eight which also represents the symbol of infinity.

Wu-Tang came up with the idea by keeping in mind the data consumption and rise of music. The album was locked away in a vault at the Royal Mansour Hotel in Marrakech, Morocco. The box was made of nickel and silver-plated material and looked gorgeous. The group managed to make the album a rare portrait rather than pop. Well, fans seem to be eagerly waiting but we believe the album 'Once Upon A Time' will be heard by their grandchildren. People out there who value music would definitely understand and reimagine the way they look at music. Also remember, there is romance in singing about a Vinyl.

Never Skip CARING FOR Your Lip

Once in Our Lifetime We All Have Experienced Dry, Rough, & Pale Lips. Do Not Ignore Them Because Red Lips Never Lie!

By MUKUND SHARMA

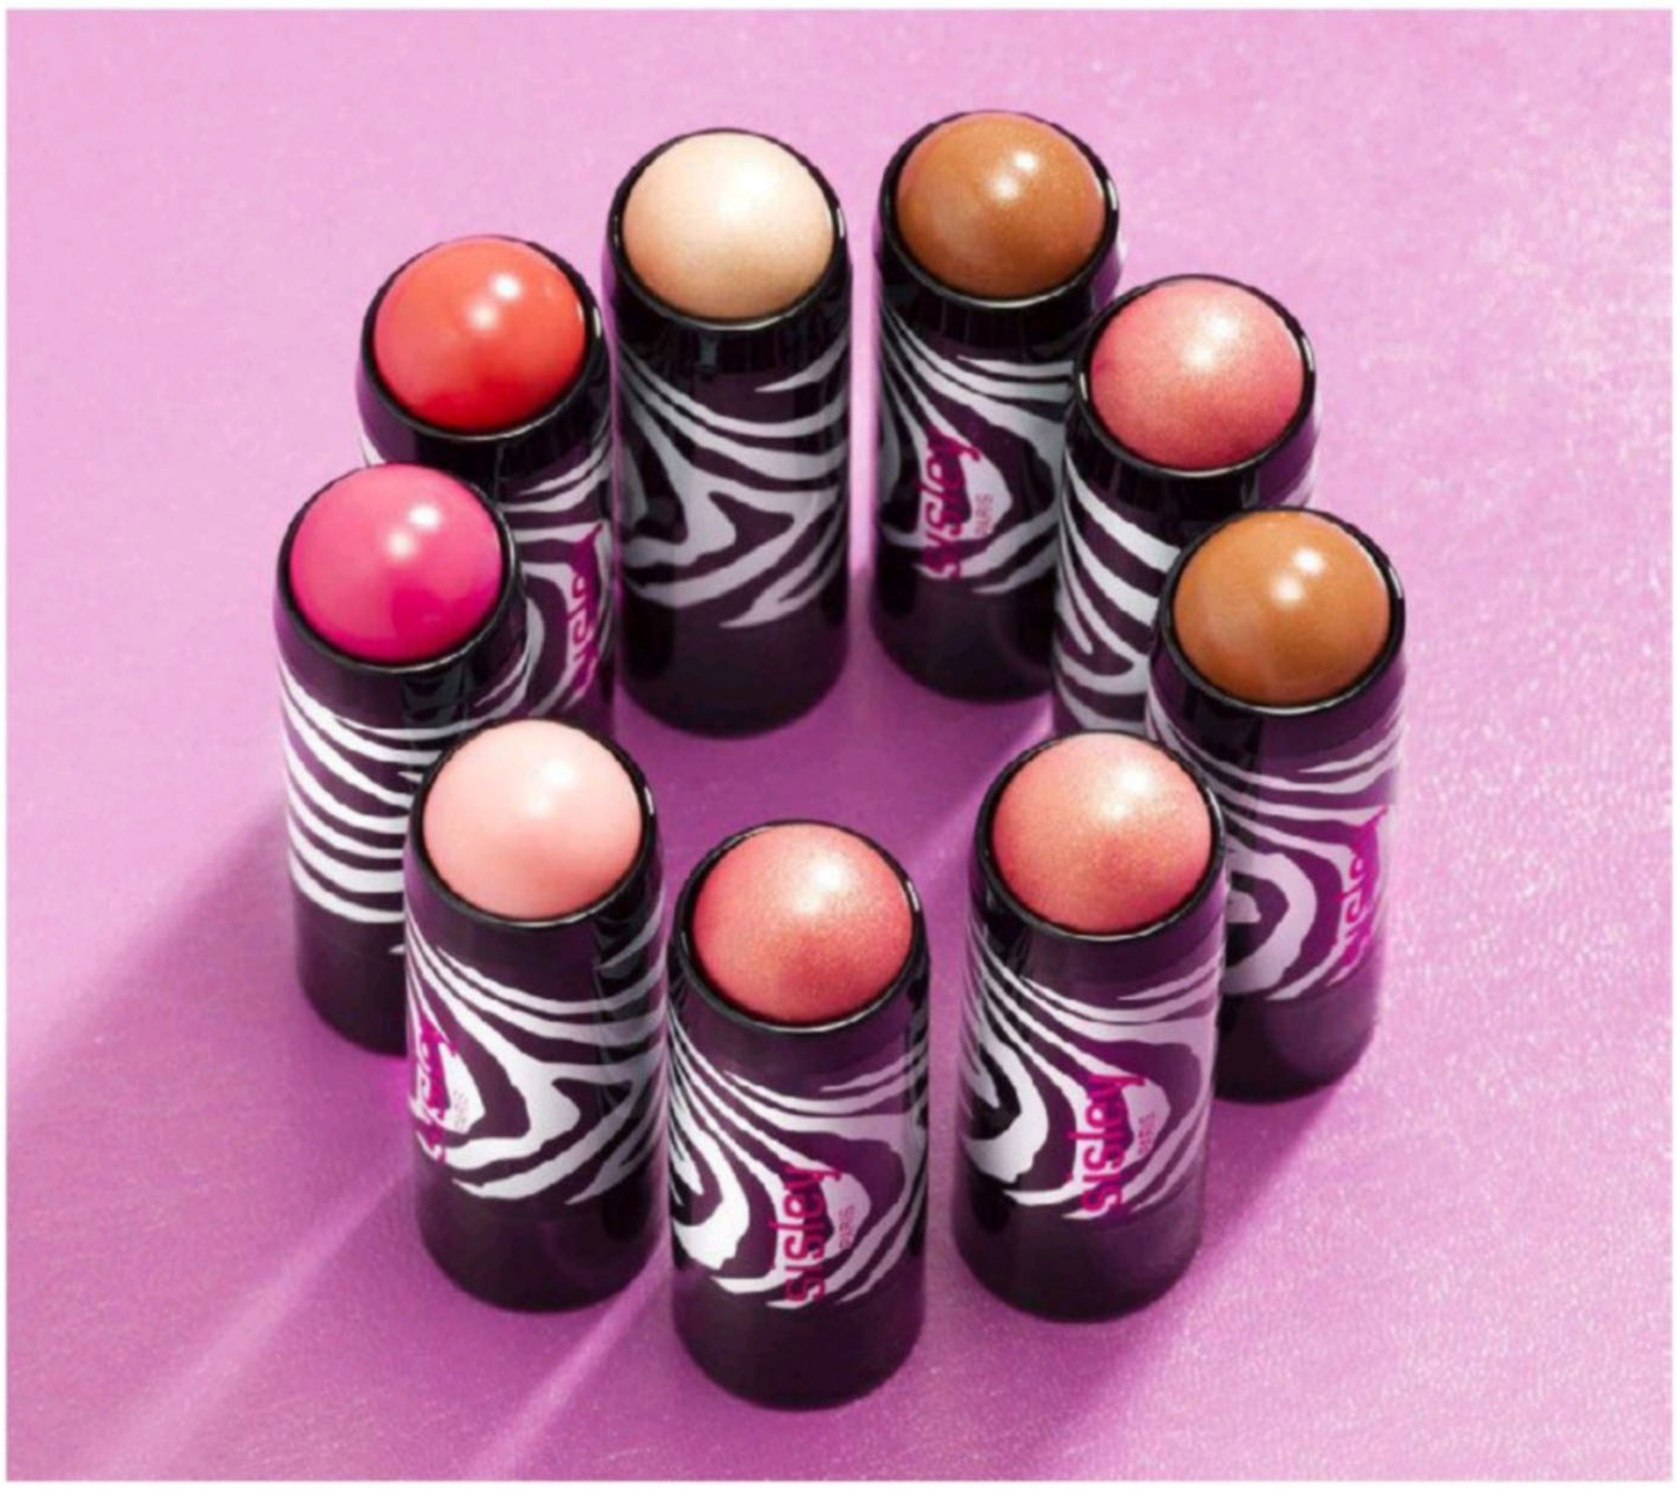
"The Curves of Your Lips Re-write History" once quoted Oscar Wilde, one of the most prominent playwriters of the 1890s. Lips indeed can rewrite history, as they are the most prominent part of your face.

Everyone says the first impression is the last one, but no one tells us what is the first impression? Your lips. Covid-19 has made us hide our lips with the protective layers of face masks but aren't lips just beautiful? From the curvy blueprints to the smooth textures, everything that goes in our mouth has to meet our lips once.

As appealing as our lips are, they could also put a wrong first impression. They can put your personality off like a toad in the pond. Not only your personality but dry, unhealthy, and pealing lip skin can tell many things about your health too.
Especially for females, Lips play a major role. Generally, they tend to ignore the lips but they are as important as your skin. Today, we have got a magical lip healer which would not only heal your lip but make it better in every sense.



The new Lip-Savor we are talking about here is from Sisley Paris and it is called "Phyto-Blush Twist N°7". Founded in 1972, Sisley Paris is as the name suggests; French by nature. Coming directly from the World Fashion Capital, Sisley is known for providing top-notch quality all along.
"Color, Care and a Healthy Glow in a single twist" is what the brand is advertising with this lipstick.

Reserving space in a lady's bag, lipsticks have been an integral part of beauty for decades now. Why did we choose this lipstick? Because it cares much more about your lips rather than glorifying them.

Lipcare is what Sisley is going for this time, although comprising of seven different hue shades of Petal Rose, Fushia Rose, Orange Papaya, Champagne Glow, Brun Contour, Passion Rose, and Rose Berry, it provides a wide variety to choose from.

Key ingredients such as shea Oil, camellia Oil, and derivatives of vitamin E are used in the process for better lip care. Rounded tips are also present for smooth and hassle-free application. Unlike most lipsticks, Sisly's Phyto-Blush Twist is non-comedogenic. Here, we focus on providing you with both sides of the book. According to its price, this lipstick is a tad bit overpriced. Although it is mentioned that it is long-lasting but many have complained about its longevity. Otherwise, if you want to try beauty with a touch of luxury, then grab this Sisly, quickly.
